

Mr Bart Geurten
Regional Head of Aerospace
Kuehne + Nagel Management
UAE

Bart graduated from the Amsterdam University of Applied Science with a degree in Aviation Management and is EASA Part-66 trained as an aircraft mechanic.

He started his career in 2008 at Fokker Services in the Netherlands, initially serving customers with advice on engineering and modifications and later on as Regional Sales Manager. In this role he extensively travelled and was responsible for marketing & sales activities in the Middle East and Africa and Latin America.

In 2014, Bart moved to Dubai where he became responsible for Aerospace business development for Kuehne + Nagel in the United Arab Emirates.

As of April 2016, Bart has the responsibility for the Middle East and Africa region, a position in which he actively engages with Aerospace customers.

Kuehne + Nagel is with over 74,000 people one of the leading logistics companies and specifically focusing on the Aerospace industry and offers dedicated solutions for airlines, MROs and OEMs.
