

DR. ROLLAN ROBERTS II Brief

Fmr. U.S. Presidential candidate, DR. ROLLAN ROBERTS, is President of the U.S. Center for Diplomacy. As an American businessman and government advisor, he was nominated to the Central Command Civilian Task Force of the U.S. Department of Defense and a member of a U.S. Delegation to South Sudan in 2021 and 2022 where he assisted with the stabilization of the transitional to permanent government. He serves as an advisor to national governments on matters of diplomacy, national security, entrepreneurship, education, and water. Dr. Roberts is an editor for Ukraine's new Constitution and Advisory Board member of the Africa International Chamber of Commerce & Industry.

He addressed China's government and business leaders on the U.S.-China Trade War and intellectual property theft at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing, China. Dr. Roberts also addressed world leaders at Harvard University, addressed Bloomberg's "The Year Ahead" conference in Shanghai and is the former CEO of the Hoverboard Company, the "hottest" consumer product globally in 2015. He was given the diplomatic designation of His Excellency as Peace Ambassador to Nations from the International College of Peace Studies. He received his bachelor's degree from Crown College, MBA from Liberty University, and doctorate from California InterContinental University in Irvine, CA.

He has extensive experience with good governance, infrastructure, foreign affairs, education, and diplomacy.

Dr. Roberts solves complex systematic and structural problems for access to clean water, business education, food security, and national security to accelerate economic, technology, education, social welfare, and healthcare transformation. He has authored 7 books, led several tech and manufacturing companies as CEO, and founded Transform Africa, The Water Mission, and Rollan College School of Business & Entrepreneurship in Africa, which graduated 2,451 students in 2022 in Vihiga, Kenya. He has written 7 books, created entrepreneurship programs, women's empowerment and vocational trainings, and individual mentorship programs to empower people from all walks of life.

GOVERNED BY WISDOM, TRUTH, & SOUND PRINCIPLED LEADERSHIP.

