Coach Phil Katz on Dan Driscoll

“When I think of Dan, the first thing I think of is that contagious smile of his. Dan always kept things in perspective. He had fun playing this game and made sure his teammates had fun as well. Occasionally he would even make sure his grouchy old coach would loosen up a bit. But when Dan crossed the lines, he was one of the most competitive players I ever coached. He took pride in playing and practicing the game of baseball the right way. Dan did that as well as any player I ever coached.”
