

Local Businesswoman, High School Student Recognized

January 30, 2012

Longtime Advent member and Rindge resident Evelyn Fogg was honored by the Rindge Chamber of Commerce as 2011 Businesswoman of the Year at a dinner ceremony on 28 January. She is the owner of Fogg's Mini Mart at the corner of Routes 119 and 202.

The same week, The Keene Sentinel ran a feature story on Advent high-school senior Charlie Poston. In a new article series, "Class Act," the newspaper chooses one outstanding local student to profile each month. Between AP classes, college applications, and his job at a local supermarket, Charlie met with one of the reporters in January to talk about school, family, and his plans to study medicine in college.

Congratulations to both Evelyn and Charlie!!
