

Tri-County Beekeepers' Association
Club Meeting Minutes
October 12, 2020

The meeting was opened in-person and virtually through Zoom at 8:00 by club president, Bobby Chaisson. There were 18 members present in person and nine members present through Zoom for a total of 27. Bobby welcomed the participants and introduced the speaker, Willa Beth Smith, who presented the Medicinal Uses of Honey. Willa Beth also made some easy to make honey/herbal supplements that she shared with the club members. She shared her recipes as well.

Dan Long, with Honeybee Trees, brought trees and shrubs to sell to members. These are plants to enhance bee-friendly foraging. Several of the members bought plants from Dan.

Business:

Meeting minutes had been sent out by email and posted on the club website. There was a motion to accept the minutes, and the motion was seconded.

Banking info was not available at the time of the meeting as the bank was closed on Saturday and then again on Monday due to a banking holiday. Treasurer, David Hollomon, emailed the information later to Secretary, Pam Wisecup, to include in the minutes to share with the club. The bank account balances are as follows:

Regions Bank as of 9/30/2020 $479.10

Paypal account as of 9/30/2020 $2127.48

Announcements:

We still have sugar available to sell. Will start bringing in sugar to meetings for sale.

Honey show entry winners were announced. Congratulations to those who placed in the show.

Next month, Jimmy Gatt, affiliated with Trees Atlanta, will speak on planting trees for bees.

This year's honey show and Christmas party – the club members decided we still want to hold the party. Santa will come again this year. Bring your children and grandchildren. The meeting will be held at 6:00pm, rather than 7:00pm.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm.

These minutes are respectfully submitted by club secretary, Pam Wisecup.
