

Surf Soup TV and the Magical Hair-No Haircuts! Book 11 Volume 2 The Whisker Whirlwind":

Fun Activity: Underwater Dance Party

Materials Needed: Music player or device, space for dancing

1. Create an underwater dance party atmosphere by decorating the space with blue and green streamers, balloons, and shimmering fabrics.
2. Select a variety of upbeat and energetic songs to play during the dance party. Consider choosing tunes that evoke an underwater or beachy vibe.
3. Teach the children some fun dance moves that they can incorporate into their underwater dance party. Encourage them to get creative and express themselves through movement.
4. Start the music and let the dance party begin! Encourage the children to dance freely and have fun, imagining themselves as characters from the Surf Soup TV series.
5. Take breaks between songs to allow the children to share their favorite dance moves or showcase their own unique choreography.
6. Towards the end of the dance party, slow down the music and encourage the children to dance in a more relaxed manner, imitating the graceful movements of underwater creatures.

Reading Guide:

1. Before reading the book, ask the children what they remember from Volume 1 and what they expect to happen in Volume 2 based on the title and cover.
2. During the reading, encourage the children to pay attention to the new challenges and adventures that Koa and his friends face, such as the Whisker Whirlwind, the missing seashells, and the coral kingdom.

- After each chapter or at the end of the book, have a discussion about the themes and lessons presented in the story. Some possible questions to ask:
 - How did Koa and his friends use their unique abilities to solve the challenges they faced?
 - What lessons did Koa learn about the importance of helping others and protecting the environment?
 - How did the underwater dance party and the protection of the coral kingdom demonstrate unity and cooperation among the characters?
3. Explore the illustrations in the book and discuss how they contribute to the storytelling experience. Encourage the children to express their favorite illustrations and why they stand out.
 4. Encourage the children to write or draw their own continuation of the story or imagine what adventures Koa and his friends might have in future volumes.
 5. Optional extension activity: Have the children create their own dance routine inspired by the underwater dance party. They can choreograph their own moves and perform them for the group.

Remember to adapt the activities and discussions based on the age and reading level of the children. Enjoy diving into the enchanting world of "Surf Soup TV and the Magical Hair-No Haircuts: The Whisker Whirlwind" with them!
