

Surf Soup TV and the Magical Hair-No Haircuts!

Book 11 Volume 1

Fun Activity: Magical Hair Adventure

Materials Needed: Construction paper, markers or crayons, glue, scissors

1. Have the children imagine and draw their own magical hair designs on the construction paper. Encourage them to be creative and come up with unique hair styles.
2. Cut out the hair designs and glue them onto a separate piece of paper to create a collage of magical hair.
3. Once the collages are complete, ask the children to write a short story or describe a magical adventure they would have with their special hair. They can also draw illustrations to go along with their stories.
4. After everyone has finished, have a sharing session where each child can present their magical hair designs and share their stories with the group.

Reading Guide:

1. Before reading the book, ask the children what they think the story might be about based on the title and cover.
2. During the reading, encourage the children to pay attention to the characters, the magical hair transformation, and the adventures that Koa and his friends embark on.
 - After each section etc. or at the end of the book, have a discussion about the themes and lessons presented in the story. Some possible questions to ask:
 - What did you learn from Koa's transformation into a cat with magical whiskers?
 - How did Koa and his friends use their unique abilities to help others?
 - What are some ways we can protect the environment, just like Koa and his friends did?

3. Explore the illustrations in the book and discuss how they enhance the storytelling experience. Encourage the children to express their favorite illustrations and why they stand out.
4. Encourage the children to write or draw their own ending to the story or imagine what adventures Koa and his friends might have in future volumes.
5. Optional extension activity: Have the children write a letter to one of the characters in the book, sharing their thoughts, questions, or ideas.

Remember to adapt the activities and discussions based on the age and reading level of the children. Enjoy exploring the magical world of "Surf Soup TV and the Magical Hair-No Haircuts!" with them!
