

Reader Guide for Surf Soup TV
and the Magical Hair-Yes to Haircuts! Book 11 Volume 13 by Donna Kay Lau

Reader's Guide

1. Music and Creativity:

- How does the mention of the flying surf van and the revving up of its engines add a musical element to the story?

- If you were to create a soundtrack for Koa's adventures, what instruments and melodies would you include?

2. Arts and Sketching:

- Auntie Donna sketches characters and scenes. What role does art play in bringing stories to life?
- If you could sketch a character or scene from the book, what would it look like?

3. Dance and Adventure:

- Imagine the characters dancing to celebrate their adventures. How would you choreograph a dance inspired by Koa and his friends' journey?

4. S.T.E.A.M. and Environmental Stewardship:

- How does the idea of creating Surf Soup TV involve S.T.E.A.M. elements? (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics)
- In what ways do Koa and his friends promote environmental stewardship through their creative endeavors?

5. Unity and the Power of Uniqueness:

- How does the incorporation of magical wigs into the show represent unity and the power of uniqueness?
- Why do you think it's important for characters like Koa to embrace and celebrate their uniqueness?

6. Compassion and Alopecia:

- How does Koa's gesture of donating his hair to a friend facing challenges due to alopecia demonstrate compassion?
- In what ways can we show compassion and support for friends and others facing difficult situations?

7. Reflection on Dreams:

- How does the dragonfly's whisper reignite Koa's dream of creating Surf Soup TV?
- Can you share a dream or goal that inspires you, just like Koa's dream?

8. Final Volume and New Beginnings:

- What emotions do you think Koa, his friends, and the dragonfly feel as they embark on a new chapter in their adventures?
- How does the magic of their hair and the power of their unity continue to inspire children around the world?

9. Author's Message:

- Reflect on the heartfelt message from the author. How can the magic of Surf Soup inspire young minds to dream, create, and cherish uniqueness?
- Can you think of ways you, along with others, can make the world a more wondrous place?
