

March 2024

Mark B. Kent, Executive Director

Mark Kent joined the Gay Men's Chorus of South Florida (GMCSF) in May 2015. He is responsible for leading the business side of the Chorus as it continues its evolution as a leading regional asset and a national influence in both the LGBTQ+ and choral arts movements. During his tenure, Mark has worked with staff and volunteer leaders to grow the Chorus to a budget of more than $1 million and an annual impact of more than 25,000 people.

Mark has over 35 years of experience developing and implementing arts education and community arts programs. Before GMCSF, Mark served as the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra's Vice President of Education and Community Engagement. While at the Symphony, Mark also served nationally on the League of American Orchestra's Education and Community Engagement Leadership team.

Before the Atlanta Symphony, Mark was the Director of Education and Community Outreach for Atlanta's $145 million Cobb Energy Performing Arts Centre. Before the Cobb Energy Centre, Mark was the Director of Education for Imagine It! The Children's Museum of Atlanta. Mark was also a founding staff member for the $92 million Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts in West Palm Beach, FL., where he designed and directed their nationally acclaimed education and outreach programs.
