Pedagogy of Critical Love

Brooklyn North High Schools
Superintendent Janice Ross

What will love look like in our classrooms,
Zoom rooms, and Google classrooms?

How will student learning experiences and tasks align to the pedagogy of critical love?

Our Mission and Vision

Mission, Vision and Theory of Action of the Brooklyn North HS Superintendency:

- Our Mission:
- Through critical love we foster equitable school communities and cultivate personal and academic success, where all stakeholders realize their purpose and learn the tools to break down the barriers with self-determination, self-reliance, and self-empowerment.
- Our Vision:
- All students will graduate within four years college and career ready, highly qualified to collaborate, communicate, think critically and be creative to persist as global citizens.
- Our Theory of Action:
- If there is a highly effective school leader in every school as per the MPPR Rubric and highly effective teachers in every classroom as per the Danielson Framework for Teaching, then there will be high student achievement, as per the Framework for Great Schools.

Brooklyn North High Schools GOALS 2020-21

GOAL 1 Ensure that all work in the superintendency is accomplished through patience, understanding and flexibility and with critical love, equity, and social justice.

GOAL 2 Ensure blended and remote model leadership expertise at all levels of the superintendency.

Digital access included-

GOAL 3 Ensure all students will graduate in four years college and career ready through active participation and performance in digitally accessible and in-person advanced academic courses in alignment to the district's Operation College and Career Ready.

GOAL 4 Ensure and maximize transparent communication by providing meaningful feedback and digital accessibility of all resources, and creating space for voice and agency that will promote continuous improvement through empowering partnerships with community stakeholders, families and students.
