

ABOUT ME

I'm Josh Meador - a Realtor®, coach & mentor in Chicago, IL living my dream!

In 2022 I became a Realtor without any background in real estate. I thought "How hard can it be?" Boy was I in for a surprise.

Now in 2023 I have transitioned brokerages & am creating a recurring income stream from real estate.

As a coach, I help agents learn business & communication skills that can increase their income & decrease the constant stress.

I am working to create my dreams in Chicago & learning so much along the way! Join me for the journey.

You can do anything you put your mind to! Are you going to do what it takes?

Are you ready?
