Alice Hinds
Sencerbox
1854-1900

Alice Hinds Spencerbox's parents were Henry Hinds and Sarah Granel Doolittle Hinds (m. 1850) and Mary Fassett Woodworth Hinds (m. 1853.). Both Henry and Mary are buried at Valley Cemetery in Shakopee.

Mrs. HENRY HINDS,
Shakopee.

Alice Hinds was born on June 2, 1854 in Salem, New York. Her parents were Henry Hinds (1826-1903) and Mary Fassett Woodworth Hines (1825-1906.)

According to Progressive Men of Minnesota by Marion Daniel Shutter in 1853, and in The Minneapolis Journal in 1897, "The ancestors of the subject of this sketch, on both the paternal and maternal sides, were of good old Colonial stock, having come to this country about the year 1650."

"Several members of the family were soldiers in the War of the Revolution. Henry Hinds...was an early pioneer in the state of Minnesota, coming here in 1854 and settling at Shakopee, where he has ever since resided and practiced law."

Alice Hinds grandparents were Charles Hinds (1787-1859) and Jane Agnes Oua Hinds (1793-1881); and

Ira Woodworth (1793-1881) and Weathy Ann Gilbert Woodworth (1797-1846.) Great grandparents were John Bradford Hinds (1753-1799) and Susanna Tenney Hinds (1750-1860); Robert Oua (1747-1830) and Margaret Peggy Armstrong Oua (1752-1814); Major Lott Woodworth (1766-1840) and Asenath Elizabeth Heath Woodworth (1768-1850); and Joseph Gilbert (1777-1829) and Charlotte Day Gilbert (1779-1852.)

According to Alice Hinds, her father, Henry Hinds "was born at Hebron, New York, in 1826; graduated from the Albany Normal College in 1850; took up the study of law in the Cincinnati Law School and graduated from that institution in 1852."

Henry married Mary Fassett Woodworth in 1853. Alice Hinds was the first of seventh children, and was born on June 2, 1854.

Starting in 1854, the family moved to Shakopee, Minnesota Territory. (It became a state in 1858.) The next six children were born in Shakopee: Mary Hinds Lord (1856-1923); Henry Hinds Jr (1858-1883); George Hinds (1860-1888); William Hinds (1862-1932); Dolly Hinds (1863-1863); and Charles Gilbert Hinds (1866-1920.)

Henry Hinds opened a law office at Shakopee. "He was held many offices of public trust. He was one of the leading lawyers of the Eighth Judicial District up to the time of his retiring from active practice in 1884. In the early day he acted as the county attorney of Scott County and judge of probate. He was a member of the lower house of the legislature from Scott County in 1878, and was made a member of the board of managers in the impeachment of Judge Page, making the closing argument for the board before the senate. In 1879 and 1881 he served in the state senate,"
