PROPOSAL NARRATIVE GUIDELINES

Proposals should be no longer than three pages (excluding covers & attachments) and should follow the outline below.

Executive Summary (1 PARAGRAPH) – Summarize your proposal including: 1) a brief description of the activities; 2) the group or groups served by the proposal; 3) why the program is important for the Community of Millbrae.

Program/Project Description

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) — Provide a more detailed description of the proposed activities including what the proposed program is in response to (i.e., "lack of opportunities for youth") Include any available facts or other evidence to substantiate the importance of the program for the Community of Millbrae.

POPULATION SERVED (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) – Identify the intended beneficiaries of the program including the number of anticipated participants. Describe the extent to which the participants and/or beneficiaries would otherwise be less likely to participate in such an activity.

EXPECTED BENEFITS (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) – Provide a more detailed explanation of the intended results or benefits of the program for those who participate. Include any available evidence to substantiate the effects or benefits of this or similar programs.

PROCEDURES AND TIMETABLE (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) – Describe the specific steps that you will take to carry out your proposed community project and activities and include a time frame for implementation. Please include, beginning date, milestones and ending date.

Organizational Description

MISSION (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) – Provide an overview of your organizational mission and goals, including any special expertise or accomplishments. Explain how the proposed program is consistent with your organizational mission.

HISTORY (1 PARAGRAPH) – Provide a brief summary of your organization history, including the date your organization was established.

CURRENT PROGRAMS (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) – Provide a brief description of your organization's current programs or activities, including any service statistics and strengths or accomplishments. Please highlight any new or different activities, if any.

Evaluation - Each applicant must include in their proposal how they plan for their project/program to be monitored and evaluated. (If funded, the Millbrae Community Foundation will also supply an evaluation form at the conclusion of the project to be completed and forwarded to the Foundation.)

PLANS (1-2 PARAGRAPHS) – Provide plans for evaluation/monitoring of your proposed activities, including how success will be defined and measured and who will be involved with evaluating this work (staff, board, community, consultants).

SITE VISIT (1 PARAGRAPH) – Will a site visit be possible by the Millbrae Community Foundation representatives to view the project/program in progress? If yes, give an idea of when, where, what and with whom we can visit.
