

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

I pray you all are healthy in Body, Mind, and Spirit. May God bless you with love, peace, and joy this week! As you may be aware, the General Conference of the United Methodist Church will convene on Tuesday, April 23th, for a week of "Holy Conferencing." Gathering to discuss and make decisions on the direction of the Church has been a practice among Methodists for two and a half centuries. Rev. Tom Berlin, Bishop of the Florida Annual Conference, is in Charlotte, North Carolina right now. If you click the photo above, or this link to his video, you can see his introduction to General Conference.

Here is a link to the Livestream, in case you'd like to see what's going on this week. Bishop Berlin will also post updates regularly.

No doubt we will read or hear reactions in the news and on social media, some from opposing perspectives. Please remember that as His Disciples, Jesus calls us to love one another.

While I'm not an expert on General Conference activities, if you have any questions, please feel free to ask. I'll do my best to respond. I hope you'll tune in from time to time and enjoy!

"May mercy, peace, and love be yours in abundance." - Jude
