A Guide for Lenders and Owners

STEPHEN RUSHMORE, CRE, MAI, SREA, is president of Hospitality Valuation Services, Inc., the nation's only appraisal firm specializing exclusively in the hotel industry. In addition, he is a general partner of Hospitality Equity Investors, which owns six hotels including the Marriott Seaview Country Club, the Danbury Hilton, and the Residence Inn, Princeton. He is also one of the founders of Microtel, a sub-budget motel chain that provides comfortable accommodations at below-market prices.

Mr. Rushmore, who received a BS in Hotel Administration from Cornell University and an MBA from the University of Buffalo, is a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, the American Society of Real Estate Counselors, and the Society of Real Estate Appraisers.

A frequent lecturer on topics related to hotel investing, Mr. Rushmore is an Adjunct Assistant Professor of Real Estate at New York University and also teaches regularly at Cornell University and Michigan State University. In addition, he developed and presents the seminar "Hotel/Motel Valuation" for the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, as well as the seminar "The Negotiation of Management Contracts" for various other organizations around the country.

Mr. Rushmore's previous books include The Valuation of Hotels and Motels; Hotels, Motels, and Restaurants: Valuations and Market Studies; and How to Perform an Economic Feasibility Study of a Proposed Hotel or Motel. He has written numerous articles in various trade and professional journals, and authors a monthly column for Lodging Hospitality magazine and a quarterly column for the Real Estate Finance Journal.
