CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Greetings, (remember when we saw that word heading an induction letter?)

Well, no need to react like we did 50 years ago. Now we volunteer, for the military, for marriage, and especially for an eternity with The Christ. Our choice, His terms. That is, if we are ready to be His bride, and not just His date...

We are still praying for members & spouses' health issues, while we are still celebrating His perfect healing.

We mourn the loss of Bob Reed, pray for Margo, and celebrate the positive impact he had on most all of us....

I do encourage us all to take advantage of staying inside due to the heat & rona "situation" by an occasional prayer, even if it is a minute or two, for our Detachment, our leaders, and relatives. Starting with a " Thank You" , then whatever is on the heart..... doesn't have to be a half hour long...

I certainly thank you, one & all...

Chaplain Bob
