

Candidate:

Alexandra del Moral Mealer

When a candidate has no track record

When you ask the candidate for details about their civic service and political voting and contributing record and they get red faced angry

When the candidate has not worked on a single conservative campaign or legislative item ever

What exactly are we dealing with here?

This is fourth of a seven-part series of the Mealer inconsistencies:

Part 4 – Suddenly, after no demonstrated Republican voting or donating record, the Californian moves to Texas and runs for public office

Background

- We asked Mealer on many occasions to explain her lack of any voting record in Harris County Republican politics
- We asked Ohio's for her voting and donation record
- We asked California for her voting and donation record
- We asked Mealer to simply explain why, after no demonstratable conservative voting and donating record did she decide to run for public office
- Her answer was red faced anger and indignance directed toward us for daring to ask the question
- Next, her campaign and Mealer herself began loudly and regularly complaining that she was being attacked

Since when is it an attack to ask a candidate a simple question?

We have no way of knowing who she really is and what she is showing us is indignance and anger.

We thought she wanted to represent us. We were wrong.

She is showing us that she just wants to get elected and our questions are just bothersome to her.

Alex's key supporters have ALL given and supported Democrats:

- Kim Ogg
- Sylvester Turner
- Lee Brown
- Bill White
- Lina Hidalgo

- Jim McIngvale
  - campaigned for Sylvester Turner, Sheila Jackson Lee, Lee P Brown, and other democrats
- Steve Raddack
  - allied with El Franco Lee, wanted to be county judge but too lazy to run himself so he found a puppet and started twisting law enforcement arms for support

They are everything that is wrong with Harris County conservative Republicans being able to gain and keep control of Harris County and City of Houston politics and responsible for the current budget disasters, flooding and crime
