

With Fall Officially here, the lake has entered the quiet, peaceful phase. The smell of campfires is in the evening air and if you plan an early morning boat ride or a moonlight ride, be sure to bring a blanket or jacket. Be sure to schedule some camping and lake time. The draw down of the lake is scheduled to begin November 1, so still lots of time to enjoy our beautiful lake at full pool.

The Labor Day weekend seemed to fly by. We had a huge group for breakfast at both parks. Coffee, pancakes, omelets, and visiting were enjoyed by everyone in attendance. Sunday morning was the last church service for the season. The Lake Church congregation said their farewells until next year, the Sunday of Memorial Day weekend.
