A Talk with the Padre

“LOVE COVERS ALL”

Your Padre's Thoughts, February 2024

Hi there

It is good to be able to communicate with you once again in this new year. I apologize for not submitting a note to you my comrades last month. I could use a myriad of excuses but will only say I was late for the Newsletter.

As I write this on January 16, 2024 it appears as though we have come through a very cold, record-breaking cold temperatures in January, and I am grateful today it almost seems warm compared to what we have experienced. I trust you have been able to stay warm, and I for one am so grateful to live in a warm home, and not have to face displacement and insecure safe accommodations as many of our Edmontonians are forced to.

The thought of February, longer day light hours, and love might well be on the forefront of many of our thoughts. Valentines Day on February 14th. Has at its core the idea of Love, which is in and of itself a “heartwarming idea and notion.”

Love comes in many facets and we use that word regularly. As I say at weddings I officiate at, we use words like, “I love my house, I love my dog, I love my car,” and the list goes on. Earlier this year my granddaughter who resides in the Ottawa area called and asked if I would officiate their wedding this coming summer. Of course, I would, but what was really exciting was the thrill in her voice as she expressed the love she had for her fiancée' Thomas. Young love, touchy, feely, exciting, it was fun listening to her speak. This past year we welcomed a sixth great grandchild into our family, and it was so much fun to experience the tender love that mom and dad have for their little girl Riley.

Many of us have been blessed with many years of a deep love for our partners, significant other, and we have come to appreciate the security of that deep tested kind of love. For too many of our community who have lost a loved one in this past year, you will know the pain of no longer having that loved one waking up next to us. It seems too often that we find how much we love another person, only after they are no longer with us. For those who this , it is much more than just touch feely kind of love. It is a deep sense of knowing we belong, and we are appreciated for who we are in the relationship we share.

A Talk with the Padre

There is another kind of love however that goes beyond anything we have experienced with another human being. We know that our earthly loved ones sometimes do not measure up, and the same could be said for us. But this other kind of love I am talking about goes way beyond our human understanding of love. We call it “agape” love. The Bible tells us:

John 15:13, “There is no greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.”

Jesus spoke those words to His followers, not long before He would offer His life as a sacrifice for their sins, as well as ours, by allowing Himself to be crucified on a Roman Cross, and thereby giving His life for us. That was Love in its purist and loving form.

John 3:16, “For this is how God loved the world: He gave His one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.”

Our love for one another is conditional and transitional, “you love me and I will love you.” Our love for one another is often given and withdrawn, depending on the circumstances and how I feel about that person at the moment. God’s love stands apart from our idea of love. God’s love is not tethered to the ups and downs of my circumstances, nor it is based on actions. God’s love for us does not waver with our feelings, nor does it hinge on our performance. God’s love is constant, it is ever present, not distant, nor is it indifferent, but it is faithful.

1 John 4:16,

“God is love, and all who live in God live in Love, and God’s love lives in them.”

These next Bible passages are some of my favourites, and have helped me through difficult circumstances and experiences, and I leave them with you to ponder and allow them to guide our thoughts and minds. God’s Love is not fickle, and it is something we can cling onto to.

Romans 8:31-38

What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? Since he did not spare even his own Son but gave him up for us all, won’t he also give us everything else? Can anything ever separate us from Christ’s love? I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God’s love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God’s love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord. No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

So, until next time show some love to those we love and who love us in return.

February Newsletter 2024

February is upon us. Hopefully Wiarthon Willie does not see his shadow and spring will be around the corner!

Our membership chairperson has been busy with a number of new applicants. Fourteen applicants were initiated in January with eight more to be initiated at a later date. There are two pictures included of our newest members. That is huge for our auxiliary as our numbers had been dwindling as many Ladies Auxiliaries have across Canada. Much of the credit goes to Vickie Torrie who was handing out applications at the Farmer's Market.

The Ladies Auxiliary will have Spring Raffle tickets available soon. Prizes for this raffle are 1) food hamper –valued at $400, 2) handcrafted wood truck and trailers – valued at $200, 3) signed military print – valued at $200 and 4) a soft relaxing lap blanket and crystal glasses – valued at $75. The draw will be on Saturday March 23, 2024. This will be our Easter ham & turkey meat raffle date also.

In January we had a large crowd for our “Button Bingo” with attendees seeming to enjoy it. February’s “Button Bingo” is Saturday February 10th right after the meat raffle and 50/50. Come enjoy yourselves. It’s free and prizes are donated items. Who knows what you will win!!

Happy Valentine’s Day

A POEM WORTH READING

He was getting old and paunchy
And his hair was falling fast,
And he sat around the Legion,
Telling stories of the past.

Of a war that he once fought in
And the deeds that he had done,
In his exploits with his buddies;
They were heroes, every one.

And 'tho sometimes to his neighbors
His tales became a joke,
All his buddies listened quietly
For they knew where of he spoke.

But we'll hear his tales no longer,
For ol' Joe has passed away,
And the world's a little poorer
For a Veteran died today.

He won't be mourned by many,
Just his children and his wife.
For he lived an ordinary,
Very quiet sort of life.

He held a job and raised a family,
Going quietly on his way;
And the world won't note his passing,
'Tho a Veteran died today.

When politicians leave this earth,
Their bodies lie in state,
While thousands note their passing,
And proclaim that they were great.

Papers tell of their life stories
From the time that they were young,
But the passing of a Veteran
Goes unnoticed, and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution
To the welfare of our land,
Some jerk who breaks his promise
And cons his fellow man?

Or the ordinary fellow
Who in times of war and strife,
Goes off to serve his country
And offers up his life?

The politician's stipend
And the style in which he lives,
Are often disproportionate,
To the service that he gives.

While the ordinary Veteran,
Who offered up his all,
Is paid off with a medal
And perhaps a pension, small.

It is not the politicians
With their compromise and ploys,
Who won for us the freedom
That our country now enjoys.

Should you find yourself in danger,
With your enemies at hand,
Would you really want some cop-out,
With his ever-waffling stand?

Or would you want a Veteran
His home, his country, his kin,
Just a common Veteran,
Who would fight until the end.

He was just a common Veteran,
And his ranks are growing thin,
But his presence should remind us
We may need his likes again.

For when countries are in conflict,
We find the Veteran's part,
Is to clean up all the troubles
That the politicians start.

If we cannot do him honor
While he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage
At the ending of his days.

Perhaps just a simple headline
In the paper that might say:
"OUR COUNTRY IS IN MOURNING,
A VETERAN DIED TODAY."
