Note from the President

No Meeting in July

The Friendship Force Knoxville Board of Directors has postponed the July 26 meeting. The wine and cheese evening at the Tennessee Valley Unitarian Universalist Church was intended to introduce potential new members to Friendship Force. We had planned to show a Rick Steves’ video, “Why We Travel” that embodies the mission of Friendship Force, as well as welcome Friendship Force International Southeast Field Representative, Rob Kilpatrick. The CDC recently raised the Knox

County Covid risk level from low to medium. As a result of the increased risk, TVUUC requires masks to be worn indoors, and prohibits food and drink inside the building. We hope to reschedule at a later date.

Outbound Journey to Lower Columbia—a wonderful experience

Five FFK members just returned from a journey to the Pacific Northwest where the Lower Columbia Friendship Force club hosted us. Thanks to Barbara Elder who did an excellent job coordinating the July 6-11 journey. The other FFK ambassadors were Jean and Ron Mayer, Jayne Raparelli and Mike McDonough. We were joined by four members from clubs in Des Moines, Iowa, Huntsville, Alabama, and Lake Hartwell, Georgia. We cruised the Columbia River, visited Longview and Castle Rock, Washington, Crown Point State Park, Fort Clatsop, the Oregon coast, and the Mount St. Helens National Volcanic Monument. We enjoyed getting to know the Lower Columbia folks and our fellow ambassadors. We will share much more about this journey at the August FFK meeting.

A world of friends is a world of peace.
Jayne Raparelli, President

New Member Profile: Gail Tyson

Gail Tyson joined Friendship Force Knoxville in September 2021, shortly after she moved to Knoxville from Atlanta. She grew up in Philadelphia, lived in Palo Alto, California while earning her master's degree in creative writing at Stanford. She later lived in West Berlin, Germany and New Orleans before moving to Atlanta in the mid-90s. Most of her career before retiring in 2021 was in marketing, primarily for colleges and universities. In Knoxville, Gail joined the Board of the Flying Anvil Theater and became actively involved in the Knoxville Writer's Guild. Bill Cherry introduced her to Friendship Force where she is an active member of the Program Committee.

Her interests are writing, travel, theater, reading, art, biking and hiking. Many of her most interesting travels have been hiking trips in Europe, including in Wales, Provence, Northern Ireland, and the Italian Lakes Region.

Travel is picking up speed and it would be a good idea to check your passport to be sure it doesn't need to be renewed. The 26 European nations in the Schengen Accord require that a passport be valid for at least three months past your date of departure. Many other countries will not allow you to cross their borders or board an airplane to fly there unless your passport is valid for at least six months beyond your intended date of departure. Maybe you don't have specific travel plans now that require a passport but why not be ready?

You can pick up Passport Renewal forms at the Post Office or print them from online. If you want assistance filling them out, you will need an appointment at the main USPS location to speak to someone at their passport counter but you can also complete them and ask questions at the general counter. It is a good idea to request the expedited service but it still may take several weeks to get your new passports. You will also have to send your old passports with your renewal forms so you can't travel abroad until the new ones come back. A new photo will be required which can be obtained at the USPS as well. The photo service is offered at other places like the Knox County Office, Fed-Ex, even Walmart or CVS and Walgreens.

Joint Meeting with FF WNC At The Shelton House, Waynesville, NC Great Visit! Great Fun! Good Eats!

What began as an idea in Leslie Badaines' head for a joint meeting with FF Western North Carolina resulted in a lively and collegial event in Waynesville, NC. FFK Program Chairman Marsha Mitchell along with Harriet Hilton of the WNC Club arranged for the gathering to take place at the historic Shelton House in Waynesville, built in 1875, which included a guided tour of the main house and museum collection, a tour of the lower barn featuring medical and agricultural antiques, and a catered lunch in the upstairs with harp music and vocalists. Fifteen members from each club attended and all made new friends. Presidents from both clubs- Jayne Raparelli and Susan Harvey- made welcoming remarks and summarized a few of their clubs' respective past programs and events.

Several members spent the night at the quaint Route 19 Inn in Maggie Valley on the creek and enjoyed delicious food at two famous eateries- dinner at the Haywood Smokehouse in Waynesville and breakfast at Joey's Pancakes in Maggie Valley. Not only was the food memorable, the conversation was superb.

To say that this meeting was a success is an understatement. Everyone wants a repeat. Abingdon, anyone?
