President's Corner...

Welcome Back CAMEO members! I can hardly believe that summer is almost over and our first meeting will soon be here. I work in the Administration office in our school district and it seems we were just finishing year end things, beginning planning and then starting our summer school programs, and now school is about to begin. So for those of you who have young children or college students starting school now will be the time to make plans for a few minutes or hours a day to sew. The Executive Board met this week at my house and what a great bunch they are. Everyone is excited to begin our CAMEO year. VP Facilitator, Lori Miller, was been busy last year securing our speakers for lectures and workshops and soon we will start to enjoy all her efforts. September's meeting is going to be great fun. Caron Mosey is coming in October and will have a lecture and workshop about hand quilting. Please read The Silhouette for more information.

My goal this year is to increase our membership by being the best quilt guild out there. We have some amazing workshops planned, talented members in our guild who are always so helpful, so come in and join a meeting and Come and Meet Each Other! I attended my first "big" quilt show this year at AQS. Wow! Who knows how many CAMEO members next year will have their quilts shown. We have some wonderful talent in our members. Come and join us and meet them. Do you know as I'm writing this we have 61 members registered in the guild? Great job Lynda Draudt, VP Membership!

Watch this year for an article each month called, "CAMEO Corners". If you have a question about the guild, or wonder what a committee or position is about or any type of question or Trivia about CAMEO, please email me your question. I will be posting Q & A each month.

Enjoy the last warm days of summer, the fruits from its bounty, and some quiet time for you to reflect and to sew.

Sew long for now. See you in September. Sharon Cratsenburg

Program News - Lori Miller

Welcome back CAMEO friends! We have a great program in store for you in September. It is Passport to Quilting adventure, an interactive program that will allow you to visit with your old friends, meet new friends and learn a little more about our guild activities. There will even be time leftover for parading all of those "show and tell" you have finished over the summer.

Don't forget to sign up for Caron Mosey's hand quilting class in October. There are still a few slots left in the morning and afternoon class.

In November, be sure to sign up for Debbie Grifka's workshop creating a modern applique pillow. It is perfect for beginners to applique and for seasoned quilters, it is a terrific and quick holiday gift project.

The Workshop registration sheet can be found later in this newsletter. Don't wait to sign up for your favorites, as we will be opening up all classes to non-members starting in September. There should be a class for everyone, beginner to expert, hand quilter to machine quilter, we have it all this year.

REQUEST FOR HELP: I need your ideas and suggestions for our whistlestop in February. If you have a great project or technique that you want to share or to suggest a member to present, please let me know!

Congratulations go out to Tim Latimer, our guest speaker for March 2014. His quilt, Tree of Life, won the Best Hand Workmanship Award at the American Quilters Society Awards in Grand Rapids in August.

Watch Out for the Slip of the Keyboard! - Rosemary Spatafora

It's back... and you never know where it will strike!

The Silhouette is a source of much important information for our guild members. To encourage members to read the entire newsletter, the Editor (that's me!) gets to have a little fun and bury a silly statement somewhere in each newsletter. Members who find the Slip of the Keyboard will write it on a slip of paper at each monthly meeting and be entered into a drawing for a fabulous quilting prize! So, if you come across something that's not quite right, doesn't make sense or just doesn't fit - you've found it! Good luck and happy hunting!

LEAFING THROUGH THE LIBRARY, with Marion, the Librarian (aka Sandy)

Dear CAMEO's,

Spring and summer have come and gone. We now fall in our 20th year of CAMEO. I hope your 'to do list' got shorter. I am not too sure about mine. It was a busy but wonderful summer. I hope yours was also.

I had the privilege of attending both NQA in Columbus and AQS in Grand Rapids. As usual, it was wonderful to see so many CAMEO's at these events. Did you see our 2011 Raffle Quilt on display in Grand Rapids? What a thrill it was to see it again and listen to the guests comments as they viewed it. Two of our members proudly submitted 3 quilts. That too was thrilling to see! It was also a unique experience to attend the Ohio Outdoor Quilt Festival in Wellington, Ohio. The show takes place on a three generation family owned working elk farm. At the end of our adventures, did we come away inspired, intimidated or a good mixture of both? I know I did.

Your library has expanded so much over the past months. You have to see it to believe it. The Library will arrive in bits and pieces at monthly meetings related to our upcoming lectures and workshops. You may also visit all the library at any time. Call for an appointment and the coffee or tea will be waiting for you. I look forward to visits from you.

At the September meeting I will bring a sampling of all the topics to be covered in this years program. You will see a wonderful preview of your Library at the very special event Lori Miller has planned for our first meeting. A telephone call to my home number (248-546-8531) and your personal requests will be honored each month. All paid members have very liberal library privileges. Renewing members, please consult last year's library inventory list in your membership book to refresh your memory of the collection. New members just call me with your requests. Check the website for titles. That list may be a little out of date but it will serve as a guide. A new and updated Library inventory will be included in your 2013-14 Membership Book in October.

As usual my personal collection is available to all my quilting friends. Contact me before you purchase a book to preview it first. It just may be in the guild collection or my collection. Sample it before you invest in a book. The money saved may buy another yard or two of fabric.

I will be looking for you "Leafing Through the Library".

Our first ever Clawson 4th of July parade was lots of fun. The parade route was lined with tons of people, the weather was great and our quilt guild was shining. Thank you for sharing your quilts.

CAMEO Corner - What is a Mission Statement? - Sharon Cratsenburg

A Mission Statement or Purpose is a required part of the bylaws for an organization chartered in the State of Michigan. CAMEO's Purpose is in Article II of the Bylaws that appear in your copy of the member directory. It reads that the purpose "shall be to promote and preserve the art of quilting, patchwork, applique, and related fiber arts; to sponsor workshops, lectures, and displays to stimulate an interest in quilting and occasions for friends to meet for fellowship, and to engage in charitable efforts deemed advisable by the membership." In order to maintain our charter, the members of CAMEO are required to follow through on those actions.

Final Report to the Membership 2013 Quilt Show

It was my pleasure to co-chair my 3rd quilt show with Sandy Peiss and a fantastic CORE committee. I want to again commend them for all of their hard work. This was our most successful quilt show yet. Despite lower income in several categories, we increased our profit over the 2011 show by $1,000 on the strength of the Silent Auction sales and very careful attention to expenses. The balance sheet was handed out at the meeting. If you were not in attendance, it will be mailed to you. Susan Van Eck can answer any questions you may have about this report.

At the May meeting I shared with you some preliminary comments about our recent Quilt Show. We handed out a survey for our members to fill out and it was mailed to those who were absent. I was very disappointed that of our 85 members only 49 returned their forms and 8 of those were unsigned. It is difficult to make plans if we do not have input from the entire membership. The responses were as follows. The vast majority of those responding rated our show a 5 out of 5 with a few 4s and 3s. Likewise, our venue was also favorably rated but there was a suggestion that we need to find a more visible location. If you have any ideas, please get the information to the Guild President for followup. There was strong support for a spring show (but not on Mother's Day weekend). I will remind you that our original date was the 1st weekend in May but it was moved due to a Ricki Timms event that same weekend. 48% of internet Web users share their passwords with others. Most of those responding thought the show was important to fulfil our charter, but many felt that our charitable work, lectures, workshops, and other events we sponsor also fulfil our charter requirements. The majority of those responding said they would prefer to have our next show in 3 years. The CORE committee recommends that the issue be put to a vote at the September 2013 or a later guild meeting before planning our next show. I and the CORE appreciate the many kind comments on the surveys. We worked very hard to make this show a success.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy Streffing
2013 Show Co-Chair

Members Present: Sharon Cratsenburg, Lynda Draudt, Carol Fetsco, Carol Herzberg, Lori Miller, Theresa Nielsen, Jean Schlegelmann, Susan Van Eck, Linda Watkins

Members Absent: Sharon Bisoni, Jackie Speer

Call to Order: 7:10 P.M.

President's Report:

Sharon C.- Announced her goals for the guild year; increase membership, get more attendance at programs including workshops, get members to enjoy being in CAMEO.

Liaison assignments were announced. Lynda D. will send a complete list of the assignments via e-mail tomorrow (Aug. 23). Lynda announced also that she will send via e-mail to all members, the Standing and Special Committee lists including identifying the chairman if it is known.

The role of a liaison was reviewed: It is initiate contact ASAP introducing self and explaining the liaison's role as a go between from the committee to the Board. Membership on the committee is voluntary and not required or necessary. Set up a contact basis so that progress reports can be given at Board meetings.

Let the committee know the procedure for getting information articles into the newsletter. Be sure to read your liaison committee's manual before giving it to the chairman so that you understand the functions of that committee and when the work is due.

A schedule of the Board meetings for the year was distributed ; corrections to e-mail or phone numbers were made. Sharon C. will provide a corrected list to Lynda D. via e-mail tomorrow (Aug. 23)

The possibility of membership in MQN was discussed; more information on what it can offer CAMEO will be considered first.

Current budget amounts for National Quilting and Charity Days was announced; currently $30.00 and $35.00, respectively. Issue will be brought up under Susan's Treasurer's Report.

A copy of a proposed Retreat Survey was distributed and reviewed by the Board members. It would be available to all guild members instead of just those who attended the 2013 retreat in order to elicit more information about how to improve retreat attendance. The eight survey questions were discussed, two were discarded, one reworded and one added. The proposed form will be offered to the Retreat Committee at its first meeting so that it can be reviewed. It is hoped that the form will be ready to distribute as ChAIRmail at the September General Meeting. Linda Watkins, member of the Retreat Committee, will prepare a final version of the proposed form for the first committee meeting; Carol Fetsco, liaison to the Retreat Committee, will set up the first meeting.

Regarding the CAMEO Retreat, Sharon C. happened to be in the area of two possible locations for a guild retreat and found each of them to be less acceptable than the Lion's Bear Camp location. She can provide information regarding those two places to the Retreat Committee, if requested. Sharon wants the Retreat Committee to consider the possibility of offering a $10.00 discount on the cost of the 2014 retreat as a prize to be available through The Slip of the Keyboard and/or the Door Prize Table., as a way to boost interest/participation in the retreat.

Sharon accepted a donation by Janeen Sharpe of a projector; it will be added to guild property. Referring to guild property, there is no new information on the replacement quilt rack order.

Sit and Stitch-Lucy Lesperance volunteered to chair that committee. Carol Fetsco will be in contact with Lucy regarding the September program that involves the Sit and Stitch Committee. Lori Miller will e-mail Lucy the Sit and Stitch information she developed to be used by that committee and during the September General Meeting program.

Publicity- Facebook has been stopped and will pick up again when a more quilt related format is developed. Theresa Nielsen is willing to help with a CAMEO Facebook page if Janeen doesn't do it. Lynda D. will get in contact with a member who may be able to work with Janeen Sharpe on the CAMEO website.

September Hospitality- Board members will bring Hospitality table items for the September meetings. After that, Hospitality items will be brought in on a birthday basis. The 20th anniversary of CAMEO will be the theme of the December Potluck/Business Meeting.

News articles- Sharon C. will be adding a CAMEO Corner article in the newsletter which will contain information, facts, tips and tricks.

Budget- Lori will be given a receipt book to help keep track of workshop payments to reduce the chance of problems arising from those who sign up.

Facilitator Report

Lori M.- Described the September General Meeting program and what it will entail including a drawing for the participants. Lori added that the program calendar for the guild year is complete and is on the website. Along with the calendar, each guest speaker will be highlighted with a a brief bio and a sample from the program that will be presented; if a workshop is included , a photo of the project will be added. Lori will help Theresa with the publicity by sending her the information as it becomes available.

Beginning this year, every lecture is a $10.00 fee for non-members. That information is already being sent out to other guilds and shops in the area.. If a guest decides to become a member that night, the guest fee will go towards the membership dues.

Scheduler Report

Carol Herzberg: Nothing official has been scheduled yet. Carol gave an outline of ideas she had and asked for ideas for possible programs, several were suggested.

Membership Report

Lynda Draudt: As of today there are 61 members. Everyone has been assigned to committees and the information will be e-mailed to all members along with the member directory information as it stands today and she will request that each member review her/his information and get back to her with corrections before the final copy goes to print.

Recording Secretary

Carol Fetsco: Explained how Action Items added to the end of the minutes are to be used.

Corresponding Secretary

Sharon C. for Sharon B.- Information about the possession of the various keys, post office box, church, will be kept in the President's Box should it be needed.

Treasurer's Report

Susan Van Eck- Audit information is not yet available and should be coming soon from Doris Crowl.

A discussion followed regarding the various areas of the proposed budget. There was a consensus that the Charity and National Quilting Days budgets should be raised to $75.00 each.

Members-at -Large Reports

Jean S.- Reported that some members objected to the question regarding computer skills on the membership form. The consensus was that it isn't really useful and Lynda D. will remove it from the form for next year.

Reported that some members objected to a president who serves two years in a row being given a second quilt. The consensus was that the practice of giving a quilt to a guild president as a gift of appreciation for all the work done will continue unless a two-year president chooses not to receive a second quilt

Theresa N.- Reported that she is adding a newsletter article about the Clawson 4th of July parade and on the quilts from CAMEO to be on display at the Troy Historical Museum for the month of September. Theresa added that she is working on a publicity idea that will involve the Orson Starr House at 13 Mile and Main in Royal Oak. A question was raised about a CAMEO booth at Arts, Beats, and Eats this Labor Day. Theresa indicated that it may be too late this year but she could check into it for next year.

Miscellaneous

Carol H. brought up the idea of a junior division of CAMEO involving young sewers. The consensus was that bringing in youngsters interested in quilting is a good idea and that nothing in the bylaws would prevent young people from being members of the guild.

Announcements

The next Executive Board Meeting will be at 7 P.M. on September 26 at the home of Carol Herzberg, 924 Maplegrove Ave. Royal Oak, MI 48067

Meeting adjourned: 9:50 P.M.

Wixom Artist Sets Worthy Goal

Wixom artist and Navy veteran Helen Hardmeyer wants to make 1500 quilts this year to donate to the Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital. She is looking for used fabric softener sheets and scrap materials of fabric, including cotton, corduroy and fleece. Small bins are available for donations at each Arts-is-in Market at Laurel Park Place, Twelves Oaks and the Mall at Partridge Creek. Hardmeyer will also be working on the quilts weekly (and accepting help) from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at each mall.
