CAMEO Quilt Show: Hanging by a Thread

Friday, April 22 and Saturday, April 23, 2022– CAMEO Quilt Show

No meeting Thursday night April 21, 2022– Set up is during the day Thursday starting at 8:00 a.m.

A Message from the President

Carole

April is here and that means that our Hanging by a Thread Quilt Show is only a few weeks away. I hope you all have attached your hanging sleeves and labels and are ready to go! AND I hope you are ready to spend some time at the American Polish Cultural Center setting up the show. We need lots of able bodies to get the show ready for our visitors. We are able to get into the building at 8:00AM on Thursday and will set up the show instead of holding our usual Guild meeting. If you did not sign up to work, there are still plenty of jobs for members to do on Friday and Saturday. You can let Sharon know or just show up.

By the time you read this, we will be at our Spring Retreat at Lion's Bear Lake Camp. I always look forward to these outings—getting to know people I don't know well and having uninterrupted sewing time. Retreat will probably be the last ditch effort for completing quilts for the quilt show. Or maybe you're ready to start something for our next show!

We have only two meetings before the end of the Guild year. Where has the time gone? Hopefully next year will be more normal and we won't have to cancel any meetings.

Meanwhile, Sew many quilts!

Carole

CAMEO's Great Scrap Bag Challenge

And the Winner Is....

What fun to see all of the colorful, creative entries in the Scrap Bag Challenge displayed at our March meeting! How amazing to see the diverse ways that people combined their scraps to make some marvelous quilts! Thanks to everyone who bought a $1 Scrap Bag and to everyone who entered a quilt in the Challenge. Thanks also to our members who voted on the quilts.

In case you haven't heard, the winner of the Scrap Bag Challenge was Linda Wallace. Congratulations to Linda and to everyone who participated. We hope this challenge stretched your creative spirit and brought you much enjoyment as you planned and executed your design.

Rosemary

Charity

The month of April is the month we designate for the Layette program. For those who are new to CAMEO, the Methodist Church donates items to new mothers who have nothing for their newborn baby. The church fills a gift box with items for the mother to bring her baby home in. Keeping this in mind, we ask for item for a newborn (size 0-3mo.). Please do not give larger sizes. They are looking for items like onesies, pajamas, little outfit, diapers, wipes, pacifiers, receiving blankets etc. We also make baby quilts for them and some of the members make baby afghans.

April's meeting is going to be held at the Polish Cultural Center. I will be there setting up the Lobby. I will be at my car from 12:00 to 1:30 to collect any Layette items. If you wish to donate but cannot be there at the time, let me know when you can make it. I will try to be flexible.

Quilt Show Updates

Basket Raffle: All baskets for the show should have been given to Darlene Baer and Judy Murray. If you have not yet done this please contact them ASAP. Thank you for your donations.

Silent Auction: Janeen Sharpe has received items for the Silent Auction. Such great choices to choose from. Thank you for your donations.

Raffle Tickets

Maggie Smith has the raffle tickets. Help support our guild by selling the tickets.

Show staffing: If you are still looking for something to do at our show please contact Sharon Cratsenburg as soon as possible. We need you!

Show Setup: We still could use some strong men to help set up racks for the show. Please let me know if you have someone who could help.

Our show's success is not one person it takes a guild and all of you to make this happen. Everyone benefits from the success of our show from our charities we donate to to the classes we are able to schedule in order to learn new ideas. Thank you to everyone who is helping.

Publicity for Quilt Show

On March 17, you received flyers to distribute to shops and stops near you. We would also like to request that you publicize our show on your personal Facebook page and on the Nextdoor app for your neighborhood again as a reminder.

We sent out a press release to send to the local newspapers, radio stations and online news sources. Ads have been placed in the Country Register and The Quilting Hub.

Please send me an email of where you took the flyer to post or share. It will be useful for the next quilt show publicity effort. Thank you!

Nominations for Board Positions

Nominations are open for all Board Positions. If you would like to nominate yourself or someone else, please send me or Bonny Heinzl an email to say which position you would like to serve. Everyone is welcome to be added to the Board nominations list in any position. When a woman says WHAT? It's not because she didn't hear you. She's giving you a chance to change what you said

Bring your talents and good ideas to help CAMEO remain viable, visible and a good place to Come and Meet Each Other. If you have served on the board at the same position for two years in a row you can still hold a board position but it must be a different one. If you have been on the board for four years you have to be off the board for at least one year before you can run again.

Hospitality

Due to not having a formal meeting for April we will not have hospitality. If you wish to bring a snack to share during set up you are welcome to do so.

CAMEO Folders:

As the year is coming to an end please bring back any folders you have received for any guild or board position or committee. Please give these folders to Carole Gilbert. (Ex: Treasurer, Hospitality, etc.) These folders are helpful to the next person who is holding that position. Thank you.

New novel to check out!

I received this email from a gentleman who has written this mystery and thought members might enjoy and check it out. It's available on Amazon.

My novel Quilt City Murders is a cozy mystery that takes place in Paducah, Kentucky, home of the National Quilt Museum. The novel was published last month, is selling well, and features quilters, quilting and QuiltWeek.

Because members of your quilting guild may want to read the novel — available as an eBook and in paperback — I'm passing along the information.

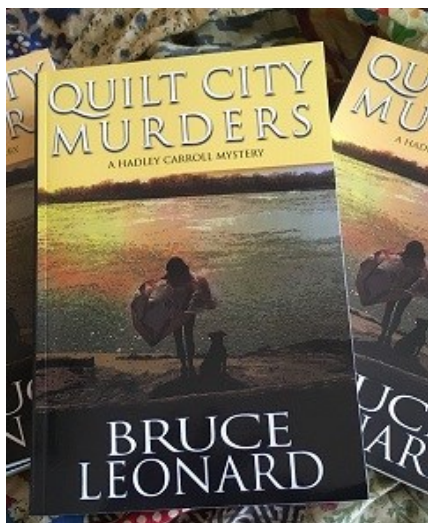

Here is the Amazon link:

<https://www.amazon.com/dp/B09M68HJ3R>

CozyMysteryBookshop.com said this about the novel: Quilt City Murders is an absolute must-read cozy mystery, and I do not say that lightly. I give this book a 5+ star rating!

In an Amazon review, one reader wrote: "Best-ever murder mystery featuring quiltmakers. This is the first 'quilt' mystery I've read whose story could stand on its own no matter the milieu, and whose details re quilting and quilters were credible."

All the best,
Bruce Leonard

Preparing your quilt to hang in a quilt show. Thought this might be helpful to some of you.

Research and Education committee, Louise McCormick-Glazier

Check list for displaying your quilt: 1) Label your quilt on the back. Per Luann Kessi, your label should include: Your name and contact info, the date, name of the quilt and any quilt history & techniques used. Labels can be hand made using printable fabric or photo transfer fabric. This was demonstrated at our whistle stop in 2019. You can also use permanent fabric markers to hand-letter a label. Either way, be sure to follow setting instructions to ensure the inks do not wash out. Missouri Star Quilt company sells markers and has a series of hand-lettering video tutorials:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JHIB5FwzeLI>

2) Make a hanging sleeve. Once you have bound your quilt – or even before (see note below) you will want to construct a sleeve for the quilt. Here is a link to sleeve instructions on our CAMEO guild web page:

<https://img1.wsimg.com/blobby/go/46a7c9cc-f826-464e-87b6-a8553053d5cb/downloads/Quilt-Sleeve.pdf?ver=1646173211270>.

You can make your sleeve removable if the quilt will later be used only on a flat surface and not displayed on a wall or at a future quilt show. Muslin makes an inexpensive alternate if you need to conserve fabric. Many quilters like to make the sleeve from the same fabric matching the backing. If the sleeve is hand-sewn to the quilt, it can be removed at a later date. Note: you can also incorporate the sleeve into the top binding, when you attach the binding, in which case it is not as removable. You will still need to blind stitch (hand sew) your sleeve lower edge to the back of the quilt to ensure it does not protrude over the top of the quilt. You want to create a “D” shape to your sleeve to allow space for the hanging rod. The blog inquiringquilter.com offers a well-illustrated tutorial on constructing and attaching a “D” sleeve.

3) Remove all hair/fur/stray threads using a tape roller. Optional: 4) Press or steam out the wrinkles (only if your batting is cotton or wool – don't iron a quilt with polyester batting) 5) Roll your quilt on a pool noodle to keep it flat while transporting it. 6) Turn in your registration form by April 1, 2022. Form is available on our website-forms tab. Deadline to complete your quilt is April 20, 2022. Best of Luck with your entry!

CAMEO Guild Meeting March 17, 2022

President Carole Gilbert called meeting to order at 7:03 pm. Meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance
Recording secretary's report: Louise McCormick-Glazier: Correction: Barb Lusk is a member-at-large, not Barb Eaken. February 17 minutes accepted as corrected and will be placed on file.

Treasurer's Report: Janeen Sharpe Guild funds were updated. We might break even for the Quilt Show. Looking into the room rental for our February meeting which was moved to Zoom, since we canceled the day of the meeting.

V.P. Scheduling: Loreen Garrison: Received contract for speaker from Park Bench Quilt Shop for the Fall. The workshop on the following Saturday will be the Sparrows quilt.

Charity committee: Linda Wallace: Layette collection for newborns happens in April – and year-round. Linda will be at her car during Quilt Show set-up on Thursday April 21, located at the Polish Cultural Center. Bring donations including diapers, wipes, onesies, newborn outfits, baby quilts & etc. The church who provides our meeting place distributes these to new mothers in need.

Saturday, National Quilting Day, March 19th at the church. There is a $50 budget for lunch.

Silent Auctions for the Quilt Show – Mini Quilts are needed; pick up forms. Baskets for silent auction to include a thread jar, thank you for donating a spool of thread. See a sample gardening basket. Two empty baskets are available to fill. Some baskets we have are wine, fat quarters (2), Dog basket (2).

Scrap Bag challenge quilts are on view, please vote on viewer's choice.

April Quilt Retreat: April 7-10. money is due to Carole tonight. 16 people to attend. Thursday arrival between 2:30 – 3:00 pm. You can bring your own food and store in refrigerator. Participants pick up packets tonight.

Quilt Show: Sharon Cratsenburg: Currently have 10 vendors, 6 double @ $275 and 4 single @ $150 = $2250.00. Jan is making clothes pins with yo-yos glued on to allow guests to view the back of the quilt without touching it. Kathy Debien is the quilt-intake person. Jobs available include quilt measurer, quilt runner and more. Sign up for shifts on the sheet being passed around. Copies of the Flyer are available. Quilt show hours are Friday 10 am – 5 pm and Saturday 10 am – 4 pm.

Presidents Report: Carole Gilbert: Hospitality discussion. Hot water will be provided for tea, along with a Keurig for coffee and Ice water. Please take home the leftover food that you bring.

June is our potluck meeting & elections. Louise McCormick-Glazier is board liaison for the nominating committee, composed of Bonnie and Jan R. They will begin calling on members to determine the candidates.

Zoom account: We now have a paid subscription, thanks to Jan R. and Barb L. who set up past meetings on their accounts. Members can use the Zoom for sit and stitch etc. Our board meeting for March will be Thursday March 24th at 7 pm via Zoom.

Quilting with Confidence class will be October through June except November. 2nd Thursday of each month, from 6p – 8p. Program: Thanks to the members (Jean S., Barb L., Lynda D., Loreen G, and Carole G.) who showed their first, last and some quilts in between. Our winner for scrap bag challenge was Linda Wallace. Jackie Speer won slip of the keyboard. Meeting was adjourned at 8:35 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Louise McCormick-Glazier
