A Message from the President

Carole Gilbert

Happy New Year!

I hope that you have survived all the bugs that are going around and are taking your vitamins so that you stay well! We will continue to hold our dual meetings for the foreseeable future, with those who can attend face-to-face meeting with us at Clawson United Methodist Church and those of you who cannot, via Zoom. That said, in Michigan we always have to think about the weather, so if schools are closed, we will hold a particular meeting via Zoom. A link will be sent out just as soon as we know that the meeting at the church is not feasible.

In January, we will vote on CAMEO's revised Bylaws and Standing Rules. These are provided for your perusal in the emailed issue of the Silhouette in accordance with the present Bylaws. You will note that these revisions drastically cut the present ones by several pages. This is in line with Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised 11th Edition. Note that Bylaws define the primary characteristics of an organization and how it functions. They are not supposed to contain everything that an organization DOES.

Standing Rules are matters of established custom and relate to the administration of an organization. They are also easier to change so that new things that come up (or things that no longer work for the Guild) can be easily added or subtracted.

The Bylaws Committee thought that putting the duties of officers and committee chairs on a thumb drive so that they could be printed out and given to each newly elected officer or to committee chairs would make them more accessible. This prevents manuals from being lost (as they appear to be every year) and also makes it easier to update as appropriate.

I am looking for a couple of folks to help me put together a BETH Project for our March meeting. As a reminder: BETH stands for Block, Examples, Techniques, and History. I am thinking of featuring the New York Beauty block. Please let me know which topic you would like to take on. I will be twisting some arms if you don't volunteer!

Looking forward to lots of Show and Tell at the January meeting. Until then, Sew Many Quilts!

VP, Membership

I'd like to say WELCOME to our newest member Mary Arce from Royal Oak. Please add her to your 2022-2023 directory.

Watch Out for the Slip of the Keyboard!

It's back... and you never know where it will strike!

The Silhouette is a source of much important information for our guild members. To encourage members to read the entire newsletter, the Editor (that's me!) gets to have a little fun and bury a silly statement somewhere in each newsletter. Members who find the Slip of the Keyboard will write it on a slip of paper at each monthly meeting and be entered into a drawing for a fabulous quilting prize! So, if you come across something that's not quite right, doesn't make sense or just doesn't fit - you've found it! Good luck and happy hunting!

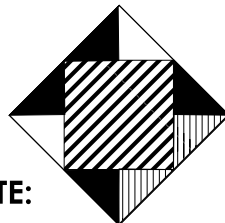

Hospitality

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Treats for the January general meeting will be provided by these members with January birthdays:

K. Wilson
L. Wallace
L. Johnson

Anyone else may also bring treats to the general meeting. It's a New Year - time to start a quilt I'll never finish!

FABULOUS FINDS

Thanks so much to everyone who has been bringing fabric for our Fabulous Finds table. Good news, we will have be having another Fabulous Finds table at our January meeting! This is a great way to weed out your fabric stash and pass along any QUILTING fabric (strips, squares, pieces, orphan blocks, etc.) that you no longer need or want.

Just bring your contributions to the January meeting and put them out on the Fabulous Finds table. Someone will be sure to snatch them up! Remember, you just might find something fabulous to add to your stash!

Please bring QUILT FABRIC ONLY to the Fabulous Finds table and take your leftovers with you at the end of the meeting.

Unspoken Truths: The Emotional Impact of Abuse

A Special Presentation by Quilt Artist, Lynn Carson Harris

Lynn Carson Harris will be presenting a lecture on her series of 20 mini quilts focused on domestic abuse. Masterfully rendered, each 16" x 16" quilt is inspired by a different aspect of abuse, including isolation, control, rage, gaslight, etc. As a whole, the series provides insight into the different shades and textures of abuse, seeks to help viewers understand the varying warning signs of abuse, and empowers everyone to look out for those around them.

Don't miss this opportunity to see these quilts in person.

CAMEO Guild Meeting: Thursday, December 15, 2022

Our December Potluck meeting was called to order at 6:33 pm by President Carole Gilbert who led us in Grace. We then enjoyed a lovely meal and conversation with membership. Following our meal, a short meeting was held starting at 7:33 while we enjoyed seconds and dessert.

- 1) Betty made the lovely centerpieces and one member at each table should take one home.
- 2) Workshop for January will be publicized in advance
- 3) Bylaws & Standing rules committee met 4 times. New bylaws will be printed in the Silhouette for members to review prior to a vote. Noted that they have been cut from 8 pages to 2-3 pages.
- 4) Charity: 43 toiletries bags + toys were donated. Total value= $960.00 Thanks for members generosity.
- 5) Correction from November minutes: Ann B. is in perfect health and does not have a broken ankle. Please remember member Janet N. and Cathy M. (former member).
- 6) The evening's meeting was concluded with Show and Tell.

Board Meeting: No board meeting in December-Happy Holidays!

Show and tell finished the evening, and meeting was adjourned
