A Message from the President Carole Gilbert

This is my swan song...my last president's message. I want you to know how much I have enjoyed being the president of CAMEO and having a bunch of like-minded, talented quilters as colleagues.

I think this has been a much better year than the last one. We were able to enjoy face-to-face meetings, some excellent speakers, good workshops and successful days just dedicated to quilting—either for charity or for ourselves and we held two successful retreats. We revised and passed new bylaws and created some standing rules. We were able to conduct several hybrid meetings using our Zoom connection and hope to do more of these in the future. And we ate a lot!

I'm looking forward to our June potluck and annual meeting. CAMEO quilters are good cooks! At the annual meeting we will authenticate an Audit Committee and have the election of officers for the next term. Two reminders: current officers should turn in their annual reports at this meeting and anyone running for office must have paid dues prior to the election. Dues for the 2023/2024 guild year are payable at this time. Though there will be no Special Committee tables, there will be the last chance Door Prize drawing and Show and Tell.

Hoping for a fabulous summer when CAMEO members can Sew Many Quilts!

A sincere thank you to each person on the following list for volunteering to serve on the Board.

Publicity for 2023-2024

Rosemary Spatafora

Included in this newsletter (on page 6) is an 8-1/2" x 11" sheet with three CAMEO bookmarks that outline our upcoming programs for September, 2023 through June, 2024. Please consider printing one or two (or more!) copies of this sheet. If you cut on the dashed lines you will end up with three (or more!) bookmarks. Share these bookmarks with your quilting friends, at your local quilt shop, on bulletin boards, etc. - wherever quilters are likely to see them. What a great way to invite someone to join CAMEO and help build our membership!

Charity

Linda Wallace

You probably noticed that you received two different membership renewal forms. On the first form, "Charity Day Committee" had been eliminated. Upon my request, it was put back on the renewal form. In the past few years, I have realized that guild members are not aware that these are two separate committees.

Charity Committee – The Charity Committee researches and recommends Charitable organizations to receive our donations. We make kits for members to work on either at home or on Charity Day. At each meeting, the Charity table is open for all members who want to take a kit home. We bring in items purchased for Haven or the Layette program and also quilt tops or completed quilts. We then deliver to the organization.

Charity Day Committee – The Saturday after the February meeting is Charity Day. The Charity Day Committee is responsible for the set-up and planning for Charity Day. This includes arriving early to assemble tables, making sure electrical cords are out, ironing station set-up, and cutting stations. They also collectively provide a luncheon for the members who come to work for Charity. While the Charity Chairperson is in attendance to ensure that there are enough kits to keep everyone busy, the Charity Day Committee members handle the logistics of making the day run smoothly.

Charity is very important to our guild. The work we do and donations we make to the various charitable organizations are reported to the IRS. That is what keeps our Non-Profit status. A couple of years ago, Carol Herzberg spent close to a year cutting fabric for children's pillowcases. On Charity Day we made over 60 pillowcases and the rest were taken home to finish and returned. At the end of the year, we gave Smiles for Ryan 120 pillowcases. This gave us a tax credit of $1,200 just from one of four organizations to which we made donations.

I want to thank the Charity Committee members who stepped up to help on Charity Day 2023. If it were not for you, we would not have had another successful day. I do appreciate all the support I receive from my committee. Thank You!

THURSDAY May 18, 2023 Charity Strip Quilt Challenge

Coordinated by Jean Schlegelmann and Linda Wallace.
Thank you to everyone who participated!

CAMEO Guild Minutes: Thursday May 18, 2023

Meeting was called to order by our president, Carole Gilbert at 7:00 pm; she led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Treasurer Report: Janeen – Balances were reported, as well as a breakdown of income and expenses by category. RE: Expenses we are over budget by ~$2,200. To be 'in the red' is expected for a non-Quilt Show year and the overage is less than anticipated. We are doing well on reducing expenses.

President's Report: Carole - Our June meeting will be our Potluck and Elections. Please sign up for a dish to pass. The board is organizing the potluck. All officers and past officers are requested to turn in their officer manuals to Carole. The updated membership registration form will be available. Those running for office must pay their dues by the June meeting. Dues are $50.00/year.

Vice President-Scheduling: Loreen – This Saturday, May 20, is our workshop on Featherweight Maintenance. Presented by Sew Many Things. Program begins at 9 am.

Vice President-Membership: Bonny – We have received 14 membership renewals tonight. For the coming year membership plans to email the directory and members may print out their own Roster. At least 14 members said they were willing to print their own. Everyone is encouraged to recruit new members for September. Members to keep in mind: Jackie C. has vertigo

Corresponding Secretary: Rosemary – The Guild received a note of thanks for the lovely flowers on behalf of the Bauldauf family.

Recording Secretary Report: Louise – No changes or corrections to the minutes as published in our May newsletter; they will be signed and placed on file.

Committee Reports:

Charity – Linda W. – We received a thank you note from First Methodist Church of Clawson for our generous donations towards the layette program. They were able to make up 128 layettes for donation. We were complimented on our donations of such beautiful quilts. Jean S. – for the Charity Strip Challenge, a drawing was made of those who donated a strip quilt and Barb Lusk was the winner.

Round Robin: Barb Lusk – no report

Nominations and Elections – Laurie J. Nominations from the floor – Linda Wallace and Kathy Wilson will also run for Member-at-large; 5 will be running, so there will be an election. Cheryl Cawley will run for V.P. Scheduler. We now have a complete slate as follows:

VP Facilitator: Sharon Cratsenberg

VP Scheduler: Cheryl Cawley

Corresponding Secretary: Louise McCormick-Glazier

Recording Secretary: Laurie Johnson

Treasurer: Lynda Draudt

Barb L. presented preparing your quilt for long arm quilting (with a handout provided)

Loreen G. presented continuous bias binding technique

Newsletter: Laurie – June 6th is the newsletter deadline.

Board meeting will not be held in May as Carole is not available on the Thursday and there is not another date available.
