

Dear Kairos brothers and all staff and inmates at PCI

You all are going through yet another serious chapter of your life with the spread of this virus, but you have learned by now that “This too shall pass.” For you, God’s word is really true: Those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not be faint. Isaiah 40:31

Members of the Kairos team on the outside have already met to pray for you all, - yes, every one of you. And we will continue meeting every 1st and 3rd Saturdays just as we did with you in Prayer and Share. We invite you also to pray at those times, or as Saint Paul says in Ephesians 6 to “pray at all times.”

Although prison fences and viruses keep us apart, we are still together – united in caring for one another....and that is a powerful thing.

We urge you to not focus on what you cannot do, but rather focus on what you CAN DO. You can pray for yourself and others; you can give praise to your heavenly Father morning and evening; you can read and study God’s Word; you can find ways to encourage others and open your heart to be encouraged by others.

Just know this...that Jesus is greater than any virus, any separation, any negative thought that comes against you. The One who died for you on the cross is with you even now.

Until we meet again....the Peace of the Lord be with you all.
