❖ World Day of Prayer for Vocations

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday, April 22, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to. "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life, or secular institutes. You can find many resources to promote a culture of vocations on the USCCB Vocations webpage at www.usccb.org/vocations.

❖ This week in Catholic History

After years working in various roles for Planned Parenthood, Abby Johnson had a dramatic change of heart to the pro-life position. Influenced by the pro-life work of many Catholic organizations and individual Catholics, she was led to convert to Catholicism, being received into the Catholic Church on April 8, 2012. She later founded an organization to support former employees of the abortion industry who have left and continues to work for the pro-life movement today.

"Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Gospel

JN 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.

As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.
