“How many of you pray for persecuted Christians?”

On July 7 the Holy Father is bringing together the leaders of the Churches of the Middle East in Bari, Italy. “Pray with me, that they may experience the support of all the Churches and communities, through prayer and material assistance.” In the lead-up to this meeting, Aleteia is answering the pope’s call. As people of faith, we know there is genuine power in prayer, but there is something uniquely powerful and uplifting about praying together. Aleteia is mobilizing our global community of Christians for 30-days of prayer to support our brothers and sisters of the Middle East.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

We hear in the Book of Wisdom this weekend that “God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.” This wonderful reading from the Sacred Scriptures reminds us that our God is a God of life, not death. It is why we proclaim that life is a sacred gift and needs to be protected at all times in all ways from conception to natural death. Come Lord Jesus and strengthen us in our resolve to celebrate and protect all life.

Next Wednesday is July 4. We will have a 9:00 a.m. Mass at Crucifixion Church to thank God for our country and the rights we enjoy as citizens.

As we move forward in the summer season, I would invite and encourage all who have not yet responded to the annual appeal to do so soon. If you have lost or misplaced your pledge card, there are cards available in the entry of the church.

Sometime this summer, day yet to be determined, I will be re-scheduling the 6:30 p.m. Mass at Crucifixion on Wednesday evenings to 5:00pm. This change will allow me to be present at faith formation classes in the five parishes. Thank you for understanding the need for this change.

God bless,

Fr. Greg Havel
