Instructional and Graphic Design

"Jesse is absolutely incredible! Her curriculum writing is the best I have seen. I was blown away with her work. My business partner and I both said if we can hire one person full time...it would be Jesse!"

-Melanie Feldman, Founder, Going Places

"I hired Jesse to help me complete the design of a very intricate employee orientation for one of my customers. My business got very busy and, while we worked on it together, she was able to take what I had already written and bring it to a whole other level. Since then, she has become my go-to curriculum designer. Jesse communicates well with my customers, she delivers everything in a timely manner, she takes feedback easily and, as result, I have brought her into other aspects of my company. Jesse is a rockstar and I'm thrilled to have her as part of the Red Carpet Team!"

-Donna Cutting, Founder and CEO, Red Carpet Learning

"The design matched the content perfectly. She was an absolute pleasure to work with. My Chief Curator even told me that she loved the design immediately following the presentation."
