

Submitted photo/Nancy Supran

A game of limbo takes place at the Circle Rocking S Children's Farm barn dance in Free Soil.

Circle Rocking S holds barn dance, receives matching grant

FREE SOIL — Circle Rocking S Farm, in Free Soil, recently held a barn dance and potluck.

The June 30 event was free to those with disabilities.

Over 60 participants came from all over west Michigan, including the Manistee ARC summer camp, to get in on the fun.

Attendees ate, danced and ran under the Fountain Fire Department hose to cool off. Free stuffed animals were given to all present.

Circle Rocking S Children's Farm is a 501c3 nonprofit organization that provides touch therapy and recreation free of charge to all those with disabilities.

Submitted photo/Nancy Supran

People fill their plates on June 30 at the Circle Rocking S Children's Farm barn dance and potluck.

The nonprofit was recently given a matching grant from an any-mous donor. The donor will match any donations the children's farm receives until Sept. 17, up to a total of $2,000.

Donation checks can be made out to Circle Rocking S Children's Farm, located at 5487 Tuttle Road in Free Soil, with "matching grant" on the memo line. All donations will receive a receipt. Email circlerockings-farm@att.net or call 231-462-3732 with questions.

On average, Circle Rocking S serves over 1,000 people with special needs free of charge. The nonprofit depends on donations to provide all programs and animal maintenance.

Visit circlerockings-farm.org for upcoming events and more information.

Kyle Kotecki