Spiced pears, pumpkin pie, turkey and gravy... the aroma and flavors of autumn inspire longing in each of us to gather around the table. The crunch of a crisp apple, the savory warmth of squash soup, and the abundance of fall flavors give us cause to pause and agree with the Psalmist who declares “taste and know that the Lord is good!” This is a season for gathering in the harvest and the family and rejoicing in the bounty. This can also be a season where healing is needed and where God alone can comfort the heartache of what this year is not falling together but threatening to fall apart.

As the season changes we continue to seek together to be “A Community on the ROCK.” Each week we will seek together an encounter with the God who welcomes us home and offers to fill us. We seek to open ourselves to God’s wisdom so that we can build lives firmly rising up from the rock solid foundation that is a relationship with Christ. We also become increasingly aware that we are most blessed when we share the bounty and the heartache in community with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

This fall we look forward to savoring this season with each of you in worship, small groups, and service!

Pastor Jenny & Pastor Scott

STEPHEN

MINISTRY

Our Stephen Ministers Are Ready to Care for You!

Mt. Carmel UMC and New Market UMC commissioned nine Stephen Ministers on September 18, 2016.

These nine individuals have received intensive training that, with the help and guidance of The Holy Spirit, will allow them to lovingly care for hurting people in our congregations and community.

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. So we often try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're experiencing a crisis, or if you are sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help.

We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, and help you through a tough time. Men are matched with men, and women with women. (It's completely confidential too!) To find out more about Stephen Ministry for you or someone you know, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders: Sharla Worley (301-514-0306; sharlaworley@juno.com); or Pastor Scott Clawson (240-409-8119; pastorscott62@gmail.com) or with Pastor Jenny (240-409-4722; crazymethodists@comcast.net).

You don't have to go through difficult times alone. Our Stephen Ministers are ready to bring God's love and care into your life.

Decision America Tour Prayer Rally

Tuesday, October 11, 2016

12:00 p.m.

Lawyer's Mall on the Capitol Grounds

100 State Circle

Annapolis, MD 21401

Dear Friends,

America is in trouble, and it's getting worse every day. More and more, we see the godless forces of secularism seeking to silence Christians who stand up for their beliefs. We see a culture that wants to remove God and His Son, Jesus Christ, from public view. As a nation we have turned our back on God.

That's why I'm going to Annapolis—and all 50 state capitals—in 2016 to hold prayer rallies as part of the Decision America Tour. I will be challenging believers to pray for our nation, to vote, and to run for office at all levels—local, state, and federal. I will also be preaching the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, which has the power to change hearts and lives.

Will you join me for this important event? I encourage you to bring your friends, your family, and your church. Let's stand together in prayer for our country before it's too late.

I hope to see you there. May God bless America again! Franklin Graham, President Samaritan's Purse

New Market United Methodist Church

LIFT (Ladies In Faith Together):

LIFT stands for Ladies In Faith Together and that is just what we are! All ladies of the congregation are encouraged to come and join in the fun. Each month is a different program from one of our LIFT ladies (but don't worry doing a program is on a volunteer basis and not mandatory!) In September we talked about Traveling Light and leaving all our worries, troubles, etc. for God to carry and we had a lot of fun making candle holders to remind us of God's light and in turn to remind us to give our burdens to Him. Our next meeting is October 10 ~ 7:30-9pm. Karen Ohlrich will help us discover and create some daily reminders/sayings that will LIFT us into God centered days. Bring your special marker, colored pencils, stamps, ink, etc. if you'd like. Basic supplies will be provided. Refreshments too!!!

Mark Your Calendars:

LIFT meets the 2nd Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Ed. Bldg. Kitchen
(October 10, November 14, and December 12).

For more information contact Kathy Ginsburg (Katherine.ginsburg@fcps.org) or Donna Clawson (sd3clawson85@yahoo.com)

United Methodist Women "Circles of Friends" -

Please come and join us in fellowship

Our Monthly Meeting - Tues, Oct. 11th at the home of Ann Winters. We will meet in the church parking lot at 12:15 p.m. to carpool to Ann's house.

 A special gathering for ALL the women of the church! Please plan to come.
Saturday, November 5th 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the Schoolhouse.
Program: World Thank Offering

Moments - It only takes a moment to lift up a soul or crush it. I'm sure all of us have been the recipient of both.

I read a story in "Our Daily Bread" that showed just how our words and actions affect someone else. The teacher asked Kathleen to the front of the class to analyze a sentence. She panicked. She recently transferred to the class and hadn't learned that aspect of grammar. The class laughed at her. Instantly the teacher sprang to her defense. "She can out write any of you any day of the week!" he explained. Years later, Kathleen recalled that moment and started that day to try and write as well as he said she could. Eventually Kathleen Parker won a Pulitzer Prize for her writing.

There are many things about growing older I don't like but I've discovered a positive that I'm not afraid to speak up anymore. There were times in the earlier years I should have spoken up but didn't. I let moments go by that could have made a difference, but "Praise God" He's given me an opportunity to make up for lost time. I surprise myself sometimes when I do it!

"Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is in your power to act." Proverbs 3:27 NIV

Blessings and moments full of joy overflowing.
Marilyn Brooks

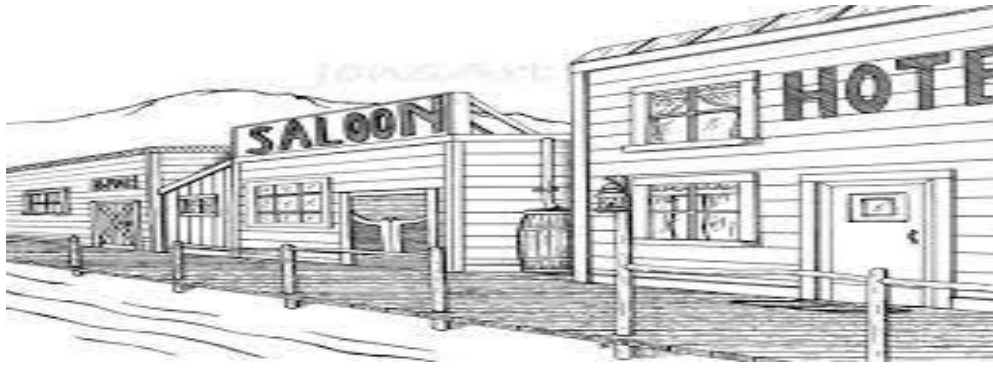

Marilyn is a regular contributor to the newsletter. She was the secretary at NMUMC for many years and has always enjoyed writing. She currently resides with her daughter and son-in-law in Ashland, VA and hopes to one day meet all of you.

Community Thanksgiving

For Thanksgiving this year we have purchased 10 holiday meals through Glade Valley Food Bank to distribute to the New Market local Community. We are doing this in two ways: 1.) Inviting the recipients to join us at 2 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day for a community meal at the Schoolhouse or 2.) Providing them with a meal to be dropped off at their home.

If you know of an individually or family in need or someone who might be eating alone on Thanksgiving contact Pastor Scott.

Come to Cowboy Town and Rejoice in the Lord!

As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another. Proverbs 27: 17

Cowboy town is a western village created by the late Coy Price and his brothers and friends on their family farm in Boonsboro. Join the men of Mt. Carmel UMC, New Market UMC, Fairview Chapel and Pastor Scott for a spirit filled Friday evening and Saturday morning filled with worship time, scripture based reflections, testimonials, prayer, and sharing of the struggles that hinder us from being the full men of God that we were created to be. We will fellowship around a steak and potato evening meal shared around the campfire, play Texas hold em', enjoy root beer floats at the saloon and partake in a hearty breakfast complete with biscuits and cowboy coffee brewed over an open flame. This is a roughing it weekend so bring along a sleeping bag, air mattress and personal items needed for an overnight stay. If you cannot make it for the whole event plan on joining us for the evening or morning activities.

Depart: Friday, Oct. 21st 6 p.m. from Mt. Carmel UMC parking lot

OR meet at Cowboy Town by 7 p.m. If you plan on just coming for breakfast on Oct 22nd plan to be there by 8 a.m.

Cost: $40

Location: Cowboy Town is located at 17933 Keddysville Road, Boonsboro, MD.

What to Bring: Sleeping bag, pillow, air mattress, personal items for overnight stay, dress for the weather, bring a warm overcoat and outdoor shoes, boots preferable.

Outstanding Vocalist Mark Beall & Praise Team to Lead November 13th Service

The wondrous voice of Mark Beall will fill the chapel with a special musical message on November 13. Mark, who is a regular attendee at Fairview will lead the service with his creative message in word and song. He will bring his worship and praise band and singers for an evening of 'joy to our creator' for His manifold gifts to all of us.

Mark is an active member at Sovereign Grace Church, Fairview Chapel, nursing home ministry, and other endeavors that reach out to needy with his God-given talents. Be sure to be at this service "Now Thank We All Our God" and receive an unforgettable spiritual blessing!

Fairview Chapel Celebrates Thanksgiving on November 20th

November 20th will give worshippers an opportunity to celebrate through a special worship service focusing on God's great bounty to each of us. This week will be the final weekend of our November food collection to be distributed to needy in our area prior to Thanksgiving Day. Non-perishable boxed and canned items will be gathered in by worshippers each of the three November Sundays so that others can be fed from our overflowing gifts. Items should be placed in boxes or grocery bags for easy transport to their destinations. Our thanks to each of you for your help with this endeavor.

For more information about these programs and others at this multi-denominational restored chapel call 301-606-3094 or check out our website at
