

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VOLUME I: PRIVATE LAW

Dedication	5
The Preface	9

A Preliminary Dissertation Concerning Law in General and the Several Kinds of it

Chapter I: Of Law considered, as the Command of Sovereign Power	20
Chapter II: Of Law considered as a Science, or Collection of the Precepts of Sovereign Power.....	22
Chapter III: Of the Municipal Law of Scotland.....	22
Title I: The Law of Nature.....	23
Title II: The Divine Law	23
Title III: The Law of Nations	24
Title IV: The Civil Law	26
Title V: The Canon Law	27
Title VI: The Feudal Law	29
Title VII: Old Books of the Law of Scotland	31
Title VIII: Acts of Parliament, and of Conventions of Estates	31
Title IX: Ancient Customs.....	33
Title X: Acts of Sederunt, and Decisions of the Session	33
Title XI: By-Laws or Statutes of Corporations, or Bodies Politick	34
Title XII: How the Law of Scotland is distinguished with Respect to the Objects thereof.....	34

Part I – Of Persons

Book I – Of Persons in their natural Capacities

Chapter I: Persons distinguished by their Sex.....	36
Chapter II: Persons distinguished by their Age.....	37
Title I: Of Tutors, and the several Kinds of them	38
Title II: Of Curators, and the several Kinds of them.....	41
Title III: What is common both to Tutors and Curators, and peculiar to either	44
Section I: Who may be Tutors or Curators, if any are bound to accept the Office, and what is Acceptance	44

Section II: The Duties of Tutors and Curators, what they, their Factors and Cautioners are liable to	46
Section III: The Powers of Tutors or Curators	49
Section IV: The Effect of a Tutor or Curator's Administration	51
Section V: How Tutory and Curatory ends	54
Title IV: Quasi Tutors and Curators	55
Title V: The Privileges Competent to Minors.....	56
Chapter III: Persons differenc'd from others by some Incapacity of Mind or Body.....	59
Title I: Tutors and Curators of Idiots, furious Persons, &c.....	59
Title II: Of Interdiction	60

Book II – Of Persons in their relative or civil Capacities

Chapter I: Of Persons in General relative or civil Capacities	63
Title I: Of the Clergy	64
Section I: Of the Clergy in Time of Popery.....	65
Section II: Of the Protestant Clergy.....	68
Title II: Of the Laity.....	73
Chapter II: Of Persons in particular relative or civil Capacities	75
Title I: Of Husband and Wife.....	76
Section I: What is Marriage, and the several Kinds of it	76
Section II: Who may not contract Marriage	78
Section III: The Effects and Consequences of Marriage while it stands	79
Section IV: How Marriage is dissolved; and the Effects of the Dissolution	85
Title II: Of Parents and Children	88
Title III: Of Masters and Servants	91

Part II – Of Estates, and how acquired, extinguished, and affected with Burdens

Book I – Of Possession and Property

The natural and several Kinds of them; and the general Ways of acquiring Right to Things consisting of Property and Possession

Chapter I: Of Possession	94
Title I: Of the Several Kinds of Possession	95
Title II: How Possession is attained and lost	97
Title III: The Effects of Possession	98
Chapter II: Of Property.....	100
Title I: Of Civil and Ecclesiastical Property	101
Title II: Of moveable, or personal, and immoveable or heretable Property.....	111

Title III: Of absolute and limited Property.....	114
Title IV: Fees distinguish'd by the Manner of Holding.....	115
Title V: Fees distinguished with Respect to the Vassal.....	118
Section I: Of simple and tailzied Fees.....	119
Section II: Of Fees granted to one person and his Heirs, and those conceived in Favour of more Persons and their Heirs	124
Chapter III: The general Ways of acquiring Right to Things, consisting of Property and Possession	126

Book II – Of real and heretable Rights

Chapter I: How real and heretable Rights are constituted	128
Title I: Of Charters	128
Title II: Of Seisins	133
Chapter II: Of the Right established in the Vassal's Person by Charter and Seisin	135
Chapter III: Concerning Superiority, and the Casualties thereof.....	137
Title I: Casualties of Superiority common to all Holdings.....	138
Title II: Casualties common to most of Holdings	139
Section I: Non-Entry.....	140
Section II: Relief	142
Section III: Of Escheat	142
Title III: Casualties appropriated to particular Fees.....	158
Chapter IV: Of private Burdens, wherewith real and heritable Rights may be affected	154
Title I: Concerning Services in General.....	154
Title II: Of the several Kinds of Services	156
Title III: Real or Predial Services.....	157
Section I: Of Rural Services	157
Section II: Of City Services	161
Title IV: Concerning personal Services	162
Section I: Of Liferents in general.....	162
Section II: Of the several Kinds of Liferents	163
Section III: Of Infefments of Annualrent, Ground and Top Annuals.....	166
Section IV: Of Pensions	169
Section V: Of Infefments of Relief, or for Security of Sums.....	170
Section VI: Of Tacks	171
Chapter V: Of publick Burdens, to which real Rights are liable.....	177

Book III – Of Obligations, and personal Rights, their Nature, the several Kinds of them, how acquired, and annulled

Chapter I: Of Principal Obligations.....	180
Title I: Of Obligations pure, conditional, and to a Day	180

Title II: Of Obligations onerous and lucrative	181
Title III: Of Obligations arising from Contracts, and the several Kinds of them	183
Title IV: Of real Contracts, or those perfected by the Intervention of Things.....	185
Section I: Of the Loan of Money, and other Things to be restored in Kind	185
Section II: Of the Loan of Things to be restored in Specie , or in the same Substance	186
Section III: Of Depositum.....	188
Section IV: Of Exchange or Excambion	191
Section V: Of the Policy of Insurance	191
Title V: Of verbal Contracts	191
Title VI: Of written Contracts.....	192
Title VII: Of Contracts perfected by sole Consent	197
Section I: Of Selling and Buying.....	197
Section II: Of Letting out and Hiring	200
Section III: Of Partnership.....	202
Section IV: Of Mandate or Commission	204
Title VIII: Of a Contract perfected partly by Writ, partly by consent ..	207
Title IX: Of Obligations arising from Quasi -Contracts	211
Title X: Of Obligations arising from Crimes and Offences	215
Chapter II: Of Accessory Obligations	229
Title I: Of Annualrent, or Interest of Money.....	229
Title II: Of Pledges or Pawns.....	230
Title III: Of Cautionry or Suretiship	232
Title IV: Of Bonds of Corroboration.....	235
Title V: Of Letters of Credit.....	235
Title VI: Of the Obligation arising from Oath.....	236
Chapter III: How Obligations or personal Rights are annulled and extinguished	238
Title I: Of Payment.....	239
Title II: Of Discharges.....	240
Title III: Of Compensation.....	242
Title IV: Of Novation or Innovation	244
Title V: Of Confusion.....	245
 Part III – How Estates may be transmitted and passed over by Progress from one to another, whether a singular or universal Successor
Book I – Of the Transmission of Property to singular Successors
Chapter I: Of voluntary Deeds of Alienation	248
Title I: Of Dispositions.....	248
Section I: Of Dispositions properly so called.....	249

Section II: Concerning Contracts of Excambion	253
Title II: Of redeemable Dispositions	254
Section I: Of Reversions, or Powers of Redemption	254
Section II: Of Dispositions containing a reserved Faculty to alter....	257
Section III: Of Wadsets.....	258
Title II: Of Assignations.....	263
Section I: Of ordinary Assignations.....	264
Section II: Of privileged Assignations	266
Chapter II: How Property may be affected, and carried away by the legal Diligence of Creditors	267
Title I: Of Horning and Denunciation.....	268
Title II: Of Caption.....	270
Title III: Of Arrestment	274
Title IV: Of Poinding.....	278
Title V: Of Inhibition	281
Title VI: Of Apprisings and Adjudications.....	284
Section I: Of Apprising, Adjudication come in place thereof.....	285
Section II: Concerning Adjudication of the Estate of one deceased	297
Section III: Of Adjudication in Implement	298
Section IV: Adjudication and Sale of a Bankrupt's Estate.....	299
Chapter III: Of Confiscation	303
Chapter IV: Of Trust.....	308
Chapter V: Of Prescription.....	309
Book II – How Property is transmitted to universal Successors
Chapter I: Of Succession and the several Kinds of it.....	320
Chapter II: Of Succession to Heritage, and the several Kinds of Heirs...	321
Chapter III: How Heirs make up and perfect their active Titles; and how such Titles are extinguished	325
Chapter IV: The active Interest of Heirs.....	331
Title I: The Advantages and Privileges competent to all apparent Heirs	332
Section I: The Law of Death-bed	332
Section II: The Year of Deliberation.....	334
Section III: Exhibition ad deliberandum	335
Section IV: Aliment out of the Predecessor's Lands, &c.....	335
Title II: Active Interest competent in the several Kinds of Heirs after they are entred.....	337
Chapter V: The passive Interest of Heirs	340
Title I: The passive Title to which Heirs are liable by being entred	340
Title II: Passive Titles to which apparent Heirs may be liable, before they enter	343

Section I: The passive Title of lawfully charged to enter Heir, and not renouncing.....	343
Section II: Gestio pro herede , or behaving as Heir	346
Section III: Lucrative Succession post contractum debitum	348
Chapter VI: Of Succession to Moveables and personal Rights	350
Title I: Of Succession to Moveables and personal Rights, authorized by Law	350
Section I: Of Testaments Testamentary	351
Section II: Of Testaments dative.....	358
Title II: What are effectual and complete Titles to the Moveables of one deceas'd?	361
Section I: Confirmation at the Instance of Executors testamentary	362
Section II: Of Confirmation of the Moveables of an Intestate, at the Instance of his Relict or Children, or other nearest of Kin	363
Section III: Of Confirmation at the Instance of Creditors of the Deceased	365
Section IV: Of Confirmation at the Instance of Creditors of the nearest of Kin of one deceas'd.....	367
Section V: Some Things accessory to all the Kinds of Confirmation aforesaid.....	368
Title III: Of the active Interest of Executors confirmed	370
Title IV: Of the passive Interest of Executors confirmed	372
Title V: Of illegal and unwarrantable Succession to the Moveables of Persons deceased, called vitious Intromission.....	376

Part IV – The Ways of determining civil Controversies in Point of Right, or Possession, about Estates

Book I

Chapter I: How Controversies are determined without Suit, or going to Law	380
Title I: Of Transactions	381
Title II: Of Submissions	382
Chapter II: Of Actions.....	385
Title I: Of Actions in general.....	385
Section I: Exceptions common to all, or many Actions.....	390
Section II: Of Proof, or legal Evidence.....	391
Section III: Of Sentences	398
Title II: Of the several Kinds of Actions	400
Title III: Of principal ordinary Actions in the first Instance.....	401
Section I: Of declaratory Actions	401
Section II: Of rescissory Actions	404
Section III: Of petitory Actions	409

Section IV: Of possessory Actions	410
Title IV: Of accessory Actions.....	411
Section I: Of Actions of Transumpt	412
Section II: Of Actions for proving the Tenor	412
Section III: Of Exhibitions	414
Section IV: Actions of Transference.....	415
Section V: Of Actions of Wakening.....	416
Book II
Chapter I: Of the Court of Session	417
Title I: Concerning the Persons of whom this Court is immediately Composed.....	419
Section I: Of Judges in the Session.....	419
Section II: Of Advocates.....	422
Section III: Clerks of the Session.....	423
Section IV: Clerks of the Bills	425
Section V: Clerk, or Keeper of the Minute-book.....	426
Section VI: Clerk to the Notaries	426
Section VII: Macers.....	428
Section VIII: Keeper of the Rolls.....	428
Title II: Concerning the Offices and Officers relative and subservient to the Session	431
Section I: Of the Chancery or Chancellary	431
Section II: Offices of the Seals.....	431
Section III: The Register Offices	435
Section IV: The Lyon Office.....	437
Chapter II: The Form of Process before the Session.....	439
Title I: Of the Provinces assigned to particular Lords, and to a Quorum of the collegiate Body separately; and how Business is expedite by them respectively in the Session	440
Section I: The Ordinary betwixt 9 and 10 at the Fore-bar.....	442
Section II: The Ordinary in the Outer House	442
Section III: The Ordinary upon the Bills.....	445
Section IV: Ordinaries at the Side-bar	453
Section V: Lords Reporters	453
Section VI: Ordinaries upon Oaths of Parties and Witnesses	455
Section VII: Ordinary upon the concluded Causes	459
Section VIII: Ordinaries in Court and Reckonings, and Rankings	460
Section IX: Business of the Lords in the inner House	463
Title II: The Method of commencing, carrying on, and finally determining Causes	470
Section I: Of ordinary Actions.....	470
Section II: Of Advocations.....	486

Section III: Of Suspensions	492
Section IV: Of Reduction of Decrees.....	497
Section V: Of Protests for Remedy of Law, and Appeals	498
Chapter III: Of the Commission for Plantation of Churches, Valuation of Tithes, &c, and the Form of proceeding before that Court	500

VOLUME II: CRIMINAL LAW

The Preface	509
-------------------	-----

Part I – Concerning Crimes and Offences, and the Punishment thereof

Book I – Of Crimes and Offences in general

Chapter I: Of the Nature of a Crime, and what doth infer it	522
Chapter II: Of the Persons who may commit Crimes, and are punishable for so doing	526
Chapter III: Of the Persons against whom Crimes may be committed ..	530
Chapter IV: Concerning the Punishment of Crimes	532
Chapter V: How Crimes and Offences are extinguished and abolished ..	538
Title I: The Abolition of Crimes, by the Offender's undergoing the Punishment of Law, and by his Acquittal or Absolution.....	539
Title II: The Extinction of Crimes by Prescription, or the Course of Time.....	541
Title III: Concerning Pardons of Crimes.....	543
Chapter VI: The several Kinds of Crimes and Offences	547

Book II – Of Crimes levelled more immediately against God

Chapter I: Of Atheism and Blasphemy	549
Chapter II: Of Heresy and Apostacy	550
Chapter III: Of Witchcraft	552
Chapter IV: Of Perjury	561
Chapter V: Of other open Impieties, Immoralities and Profaneness	565

Book III – Of Crimes that touch the royal Authority, Government, Peace and Welfare of the Kingdom

Chapter I: Of High Treason, and Misprision thereof	570
Title I: Of High Treason.....	571
Section I: What is High Treason, and the several Kinds of it	571
Section II: The distinguishing Severities used towards those who are guilty of High Treason	580
Title II: Concerning Misprision of High Treason.....	583

Chapter II: Recognizing the Authority of the Pope, or any foreign Power; and disowning that of the King, or Parliament.....	585
Chapter III: Of Leasing-making.....	586
Chapter IV: Of Recusancy	588
Chapter V: Of Non-conformity.....	592
Title I: Concerning Non-conformists of the Episcopal Clergy	593
Title II: Of Quakers	596
Chapter VI: Of Vagrancy	597
Chapter VII: The Wearing unlawful Weapons	600
Chapter VIII: Breaches of the publick Peace	601
Title I: Of the legal Precautions used for preventing Breaches of the Peace	602
Section I: Concerning Caution of Lawborrows	602
Section II: Concerning Surety of the Peace, and for the good Behaviour.....	603
Title II: Of several Kinds of Breaches of the publick Peace	607
Section I: Of Sedition.....	607
Section II: Of Affrays or Frays, and Riots.....	610
Chapter IX: Of common Nusances.....	614
 Book IV – Of Crimes that directly touch private Persons
Chapter I: Concerning Homicide	617
Title I: Of Murder and Man-slaughter	617
Title II: Of casual Homicide	629
Title III: Of necessary Homicide	630
Chapter II: Of Duelling, and the giving or accepting a Challenge to fight	634
Chapter III: Of Sodomy, or Buggery	636
Chapter IV: Of Incest	638
Chapter V: Of Bigamy, or Polygamy	639
Chapter VI: Of Adultery, Fornication and Bawdry	640
Chapter VII: Of a Rape	645
Chapter VIII: Of Mayhem, or Mutilation and Dismembration	647
Chapter IX: Of Crimes and Offences committed against one's Fame or Honour, called Injuries	650
Title I: Of ordinary Injuries.....	654
Title II: Of extraordinary Injuries.....	658
Section I: Of extraordinary Injuries, with respect to the Place where they are committed	659
Section II: Of extraordinary Injuries with respect to the Persons Offended	661

Chapter X: Of Crimes and Offences committed against one's Estate, or his Goods and Possessions.....	667
Title I: Of Theft	667
Title II: Of Fire-raising.....	676
Section I: Of Fire raised maliciously and voluntarily.....	677
Section II: Of Fire raised negligently	678
Title III: Of Falshood
Section I: Of the several Kinds of Falshood.....	681
Section II: Concerning the Trial of Falshood	685
Title IV: Of fraudulent Bankruptcy.....	686
Title V: The spoiling or destroying Planting and Policy; and violating The Privileges of Forests.....	686
Title VI: Of Stellation	689
Title VII: Of Robbery.....	690
Section I: Of Robbery committed on Land.....	691
Section II: Of Piracy.....	695
Title VIII: Of Oppression and Extortion	700
Section I: Of Oppression committed under the Colour of Law or Authority	700
Section II: Of Oppression committed by private Persons in contempt of Law	704

Book V – Of Crimes relating to Offices, Law-suits, and the Execution of Law and Justice

Chapter I: Of Crimes relating to Offices, viz. Simony, Baratry, Bribery, Partiality, Negligence, Breach of Trust, and Extortion	718
Chapter II: Of Crimes touching Law-suits, viz. Maintenance, buying of Pleas, and Battery.....	722
Chapter III: Of Crimes concerning the Execution of Law and Justice....	724
Title I: Breach of Arrestment	725
Title II: Of Deforcement	725
Title III: Opposing, hindring and molesting Officers of the Customs or Excise, in the Discharge of the Duty of their Offices	731
Title IV: Of Prison-breaking	732

Part II – Of criminal Jurisdiction; the Courts both sovereign and subordinate, wherein Offenders are tried for Crimes; and the Order of judicial Proceedings against them

Book I – Concerning criminal Jurisdiction, and the Courts wherein Offenders are tried for Crimes

Chapter I: Of criminal Jurisdiction	735
Chapter II: Of criminal Courts	738

Title I: Where Peers are to be tried.....	739
Title II: Concerning Commissions of Oyer and Terminer	740
Title III: Of the Justice Court, or Court of Justiciary	741
Section I: Of the Judges in the Court of Justiciary	746
Section II: Of the Advocates, Clerk, and Assize	749
Section III: The Macers, and Dempster	751
Title IV: Of the circuit Courts.....	753
Title V: The Court of Justiciary of the Admiralty	758
Title VI: The Courts of Sheriffs, Stewarts, Bailies of Royalty and Regality, and Magistrates of Burghs	759
Title VII: Of Justices of Peace, and their Courts.....	763
Title VIII: Of Barons, and Baron-courts.....	775

Book II – The Order of judicial Proceedings against Criminals and Offenders

Chapter I: The Order of judicial Proceedings against Peers, who are charged with Crimes	777
Title I: How Peers are indicted for high Treason or Felony, or Misprision of either	778
Title II: The Form and Method of Trial of Peers indicted for high Treason or Felony, or Misprision of either, out of Parliament	779
Title III: The Form and Method of Trial of Peers for the Crimes aforesaid before the House of Peers in Parliament.....	785
Chapter II: The Order of judicial Proceedings against Criminals, who are Commoners	787
Title I: The order of judicial Proceedings against Commoners, in Cases of high Treason and Misprision thereof, before a Commission of Oyer and Terminer	787
Section I: How Commoners are indicted, or Bills of Indictment found against them for high Treason, or Misprision thereof.....	787
Section II: The Form and Method of Trial of Commoners indicted of High Treason, or Misprision thereof	797
Title II: The Order of judicial Proceedings against criminal Commoners, before the Court of Justiciary.....	825
Section I: The Preliminaries to ordinary Trials before the Justice-court, or Court of Justiciary	826
Section II: The Form and Method of ordinary Trials in the Court of Justiciary.....	849
Title III: The Order of judicial Proceedings against Criminals before the Circuit-courts.....	881

Section I: Preliminaries to ordinary Trials before the Circuit-courts.....	881
Section II: The Form and Method of ordinary Trials in the Circuit Courts	889
APPENDIX TO THE Chap. 3. Book II. Part I. Of Witchcraft	891
Index.....	895