GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this.

Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips."

If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.

RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Agradeciendo a Dios por las Lanzas Perdidas

Imagínate cómo debió sentirse Saúl cuando despertó de su sueño y vio que su lanza no estaba en su lugar de descanso. Ahora imagínate cómo se sintió cuando se dio cuenta de que la persona que la tenía era la misma persona que buscaba su vida, y allí estaba sentado, sano y salvo. Ese es el día en el que no olvidas tus oraciones matutinas.

Creo que, si miramos, todos podemos encontrar un “momento de lanza perdida” en nuestras vidas, cuando nos golpea en el estómago que Dios nos ha mantenido a salvo de un desastre inminente. Esto puede ser un desastre físico, claro, pero más comúnmente, creo que es un desastre espiritual. A menudo, la salvación viene a través del regalo de una persona, o personas, a través de quien Dios revela Su misericordia.

Cuando estaba en la escuela preparatoria, tenía un círculo de amigos que estaban realmente interesados en su fe. Todos estábamos juntos en el ministerio de jóvenes, y el vínculo que compartíamos me enseñó una lección que me cambió como persona: nos convertimos en aquellos con quienes nos asociamos. Puedo mirar hacia atrás ahora, todos estos años después, y ver que estas personas son evidencia de la mano de Dios en mi vida.

Echa un vistazo a tu vida. ¿En el amor de quién te ha mostrado Dios consuelo? ¿Por mano de quién te ha acercado Dios a Él, o te ha mantenido alejado de cualquier daño? ¿A través de la amistad de quién Dios te ha formado en la persona que eres?

Esforcémonos por recordar agradecer a Dios por estas personas y agradecerles a ellos también.

SAINT POLYCARP

BISHOP AND MARTYR

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Polycarp of Smyrna
February 23

As a disciple of St. John, the Evangelist, St. Polycarp was able to hear about Jesus' life, death, and resurrection directly from those who witnessed it. Because Polycarp was ordained as Bishop of Smyrna by St. John, he is one of three chief Apostolic Fathers, along with Clement of Rome and Ignatius of Antioch.

During his life Polycarp defended the Church against heresies. His important writing, the Letter to the Philippians, quoted the Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, stressing Paul's authority in the Church and setting out clear arguments against the gnostic heresy that denied Christ's divinity.

The early period of the Church was a dangerous time to be a Christian and like many, St. Polycarp was martyred. He was captured by Romans and sentenced to burn at the stake. However, the fire did not touch him, instead rising up like sails around him. Seeing that the flames would not injure Polycarp, the Romans stabbed him instead. The Martyrdom of Polycarp is perhaps the earliest fully preserved account of a Christian martyr.

"SUB TUUM PRAESIDIUM" THE EARLIEST KNOWN PRAYER TO MARY

Archbishop Blair urges us to ask for Mary's protection.

*We fly to thy protection,
O holy Mother of God;
despise not our petitions in our necessities,
but deliver us always
from all dangers,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.
Amen*
