THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

- Mk 14:23-25

STEWARDSHIP: TIME, TALENT, TREASURE

- This weekend's second collection is the monthly offertory for the parish.
- It is fundamental that when you give to any charitable organization, you are confident the funds are used wisely.

Be assured that your gift to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal supports the catholic ministries and programs as indicated in the 2021 Appeal literature, which can be found at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>.

No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

Offering Thank you for your generosity and continued support of your parish!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

We Can Prepare the Upper Room

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Al reunirnos hoy para reafirmar nuestra fe en la Presencia Real de Cristo en la Eucaristía, se nos recuerda que también somos el Cuerpo de Cristo. La misión del Evangelio nos llama a ser Cristo para los demás. Hay tanto quebrantamiento y dolor en nuestro mundo. Muchas personas están perdidas y se sienten solas, marginadas y oprimidas, victimizadas y abusadas. Cada vez que recibimos el Cuerpo (y la Sangre) de Cristo, se nos pide que seamos lo que comemos. ¿Estamos dispuestos a apartarnos de nuestras inquietudes y preocupaciones para poder ser Cristo para los demás? El poder y la presencia de Cristo en la Eucaristía se hace presente en nosotros. Al recibir esta presencia transformadora de Cristo, realmente podemos efectuar un cambio en las vidas de aquellos que conocemos. Podemos mostrarles el amor incondicional y omnipresente de Dios y la belleza que puede provenir de amar a los demás. Se nos da la gracia de convertirnos en templos de justicia y paz, llevando la sagrada Presencia de Dios dentro de nosotros dondequiera que vayamos.

WHAT IS THE HUMERAL VEIL?

One of the more exotic and misunderstood vestments is the humeral veil, the swath of fabric with which the priest is holding the monstrance. So why does he use it? It is to separate himself from the act of blessing. The priest or deacon blesses the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament — but by wrapping his hands in the humeral veil, he signifies his own removal from the action. The priest doesn't bless the people.

Christ does.

Deacon Greg Kandra

¿QUÉ ES EL VELO HUMERAL?

Una de las vestimentas más exóticas e incomprensidas es el velo humeral, la franja de tela con la que el sacerdote sostiene la custodia. Entonces, ¿por qué lo usa? Es para separarse del acto de bendecir. El sacerdote o diácono bendice a los fieles con el Santísimo Sacramento, pero al envolver sus manos en el velo humeral, significa su propia retirada de la acción. El sacerdote no bendice a la gente. Cristo lo hace.
