A Community of Natural Splendor and Historical Significance

Corporate Meetings & Events

Close to both Chicago and Southern Wisconsin, this elegant and rustic venue sits on 16 acres, directly adjacent to Lake County's Middlefork Savannah. Elawa Farm is a unique and picturesque getaway for your next corporate meeting, retreat, team building activity, or event.

A historic 1917 gentleman's farm may not be what instantly comes to mind, however, Elawa Farm provides a breathtaking backdrop and a relaxed atmosphere that is conducive to strategic planning and brainstorming.

Consider the historic charm and ambiance of Elawa Farm when booking your next corporate event.

You can have an energizing getaway - without going far.

"We had a fantastic experience at Elawa – thank you for your attention to detail and responsiveness! The space worked out perfectly (we were able to leave the barn doors open and enjoy the fresh air most of the day), food was fantastic and we all learned quite a bit during the delicious cooking demo."

- Jessica Zar, AbbVie

"A sincere thank you for helping to organize our recent Administrative Retreat. Everything was wonderful, including the weather!"

- Linda Barrett, Lake Forest High School

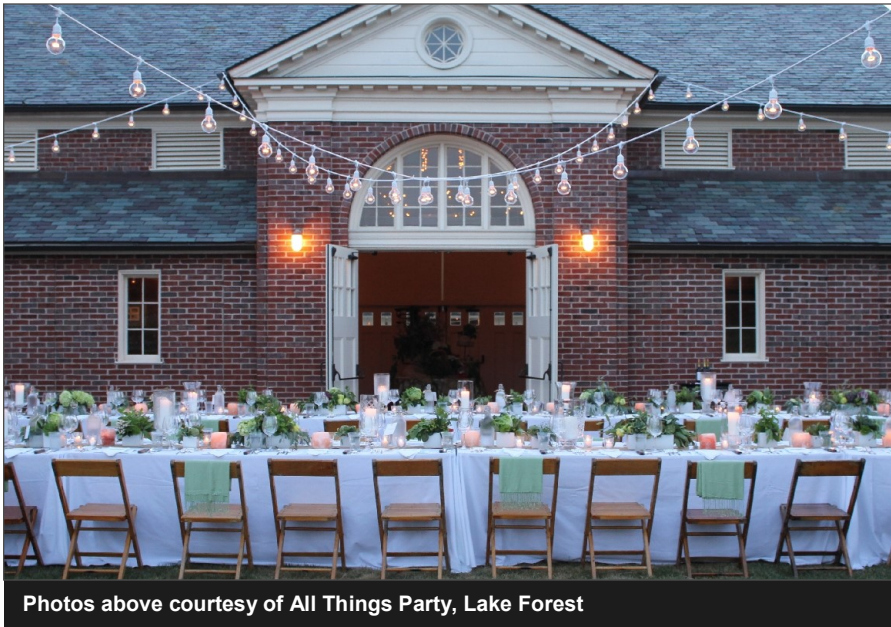

"We had a wonderful time – very positive experience for everyone and a great team event."

- Lisa Zambito, AbbVie

Corporate Events at Elawa Farm

Elawa Farm is a restored gentleman's farm dating back to 1917. Now, the beautifully restored garden and buildings are available for your unique event. Elawa's space features small and large meeting rooms in our historic hay barn, wagon shed, potting shed, kitchen, and classrooms. There is also a 2.2 acre production garden, and areas for outdoor dining or lawn games. Watch our chef prepare an intimate farm-to-table meal in the kitchen located in the main building. Get your hands dirty in the garden or greenhouse working with our Garden Manager, or enjoy a floral arranging class. A walk through the paths of the Middlefork Savannah during your break could prove to be both refreshing and adventurous.

Available catering menus for your smaller meetings (under 15 guests) will make your day seamless and effortless. Menus may be customized according to budget, preference, or dietary restrictions. We can also coordinate with your favorite caterer or nearby restaurant of your choice. You may instead choose to supply your own food and drinks. There is no extra charge for use of our tables, chairs, or wireless internet.

You may want to book your event on Fridays mornings in season, when our Garden Market it open!

Branch out from the typical, stale hotel conference room and get to know your fellow co-workers or impress your VIP clients in a charming, relaxed, country-chic environment.

Once a working Gentleman's Farm owned by a member of the prominent Armour family, this historically significant property has been restored and transformed into an elegant and flexible space.

Just imagine your next brainstorming meeting in a lovely, stress free setting.

Elawa Farm is situated directly adjacent to the 90-acre Middlefork Savannah - the perfect place to stretch your legs and reboot during breaks.

Whether you are holding a product launch event, think-tank, team building, or your company holiday party - consider Elawa Farm for your next corporate function.

Elawa Farm is available year-round. All events must end by 10:00pm weekdays and 11:00pm on weekends.
