- Jim made motion to accept the financial report; Kay 2nd; Scott in agreement.
- Brush hog mower advertised on govdeals did not sell. Trustees approved another listing with no opening bid and reserve of $5,500.
- Trustees agreed with Cheryl's suggestion that R.L.C.W.A. be paid with auto debit from the checking account or the township credit card to avoid late fees.

NEW BUSINESS

- Sealed bids for chip and seal from Melway and Sarver were opened and reviewed. Discussion results were to use Sarver. Voice vote of the trustees: Scott (Yes), Jim (Yes), Kay (Yes) made for unanimous decision. MC3000 Oil: Sarver bid: $2.80/gallon Melway $2.58/gallon Broom haul and spread bid: Sarver .15/gallon Melway .28/gallon
- Culvert may need put in on Twp Rd 351 to prevent field washout in the vicinity of the curve. Will discuss ideas at a future meeting.
- Jim is in discussion with trustees of Grafton township regarding the purchase of their electronic sign. Kay thinks the current road sign was purchased in 2007. Kay and Scott agreed with Jim to make an offer of $200.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Jim presented paperwork for the no-break sign request on 302 and 42 for board signatures that will ultimately be presented to ODOT for review; All trustees signed; Cheryl was witness.

PARK Trustee Jim Power

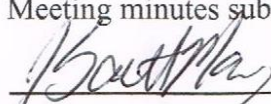

- Ball League signed liability contract with township.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION: None

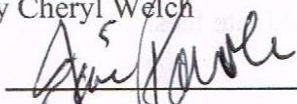

- Property owners, Lisa and Scott Brazina, at 302 CR 620 informed the trustees that David Hostettler (across the road from them) has started to build a fairly large cabin shop to employ 10-12 people; which according to their report has surpassed what the original zoning certificate permitted. Wanted to know what can be done with construction underway, anticipated increase in heavy traffic and noise. Trustees will research what is taking place at the property and decide appropriate course of action.
- Resident John Taranowski reported that Amish buggy money for the immediate area has been collected at $50/buggy. Amish officials had conveyed to trustees in conversation that the township would receive 30% of that collection. To date township has received nothing. Based on the information resident Taranowski provided; Trustees will follow-up.
- George Parks of 624 SR 302 Ashland told trustees he would be interested in the job of road supervisor should it become available.
- Resident Kenny Howell asked for an update on whether Nye's County Café will need a new zoning certificate. At this time trustees agreed with interpretation of our zoning resolution that since there has been no lapse in usage longer than 6 months no new certificate is needed.

Jim made motion to adjourn, Kay 2nd; Scott in agreement.
