Heather Farm Park, Walnut Creek
Patrick Perez (925) 915-9554
patrick.perez.g4@gmail.com

Join us for this great BBQ picnic. I will have an area reserved for our group. We will be in the area that is near the San Carlos Drive parking lot. It will be easy to walk to the picnic site from where you park. I will have blue balloons and a Beachcomber banner to mark the location. I will have my cell phone with me in case you get lost. I will provide the coals, utensils, lemonade and hot dogs to grill. Bring your side dish, grill item, and beverage of choice. If you need to go to a store to purchase your food or beverage, there is a shopping center on the corner of Ygnacio Valley Road and San Carlos Drive. They have a great variety of food items and supplies for the picnic. I will have 2 tables in the shade to keep your food cool. If it is warm that day, bring a swimsuit for the pool nearby. There is a beautiful rose garden on the west side of the pond to enjoy as well. Directions: The park is located on North San Carlos Drive which intersects with Ygnacio Valley Road. Our location will be on the corner of Heather Drive and North San Carlos Drive. Our location will be next to the swimming pool parking lot. However, it will be easier to park across from our site that is more ample parking and is closer.

Mare Island (A Two-Part Hike)

Sunday July 16 10:00 a.m.
Diane Savard (925) 864-7141
For those driving directly to Mare Island: Meet at 9:50am for a 10:00 am departure from the San Pablo Trail trailhead, Mare Island, Vallejo, CA. GPS: 38.10093, -122.28524

Hike Summary: Part 1 - 3.7 miles, 0 elevation gain. Part 2 - 1 mile, 150 ft elevation gain Mare Island became the first United States naval base on the West Coast in 1854 and was operational until 1996. The history of Mare Island and service supporting WWI and WWII are very much worth investigating. And what could be more interesting or mysterious than being a submarine port?

This is a two-part hike. Part 1 will take us along the San Pablo Bay on the west side of Mare Island. An easy 3.7 miles out and back trail with views of the bay, Point Pinole, Napa, Sonoma, Marin and the Carquinez bridge. Also, there are many birds to see.

Next, part two, we drive to the Mare Island Preserve on the south end of the island. As we drive to the preserve we will witness some of Mare Island's naval history, housing for the officers, including Commandant's mansion, bunkers built to protect staff and their families in case of nuclear attack, historic St. Peter's Chapel, famous for its Tiffany windows and more.

Once we arrive at the preserve parking lot, we will then hike up to a metal sculpture dedicated to the ships and ship builders working on Mare Island called the "Spirit Ship". We will then tour the cemetery, the oldest naval cemetery on the west coast has been designated as a National Historic Landmark. It has three Congressional Medal of Honor recipients — James Cooney, Alexander Parker and William Halford. Anna Arnold Key Turner, the daughter of Francis Scott Key, is also buried there. She had eleven children with her husband David. She served as one of Vallejo's first public school teachers and died in 1884.

In World War I, Mare Island set a record when the destroyer USS Ward was built in seventeen and a half days. During the Second World War, Mare Island built 17 submarines, 31 destroyer escorts, and more than 300 landing craft. Its final vehicle was the USS Drum, a nuclear-powered attack submarine in 1970.

Toward the front of the cemetery lie six other Russian sailors, who died during the Civil War era. They'd served on the Bogatyr, flagship of Admiral A.A. Popov's Pacific Squadron, which visited the Bay Area at the invitation of President Abraham Lincoln in 1863. Lincoln was seeking international support to counter the French and British fleets gathering behind the Confederacy. While the Russians were in San Francisco, fire broke out in the Financial District. The six Russian sailors died fighting the blaze. The original markers, paid for by their shipmates, were probably wooden crosses. The US Navy purchased more permanent markers for them in the 19th century, but those had become illegible over the years. The Mare Island Cemetery made the news in April 2011 after the Russian Consulate voluntarily replaced the worn headstones of the Russian sextet with granite crosses copied from the crew of the Lena. Unfortunately, because the cemetery is a National Historical Landmark, it is illegal to change it in any way. While the Russian Consul-General had applied for the appropriate permits, they had not been signed by the time the replacement work was done.

The director of the nonprofit Mare Island Heritage Trust, Myrna Hayes, pushed for criminal charges to be filed against the Russian Consulate for vandalism. Apparently an uneasy peace has been reached, because the new monuments continue to stand.

Optional: After the hike, we may visit Mare Island Brewing Co. – Coal Shed Brewery for beer and food or Savage and Cooke Distillery for whiskey tasting.

Bring water (1-2 liters) and snacks. Boots or sturdy hiking shoes are recommended. Because the area is exposed, sunscreen and a hat are highly recommended. Dress/layer for changing weather, e.g., wind. Poles optional, but for this hike not likely needed. Outhouses are located at both trailhead parking lots.

Driving Directions: I-680 north to I-780 west thru Benicia to Curtola Pkwy, Vallejo ($Toll). Continue on Curtola Pkwy past the ferry terminal (Curtola will become Mare Island Way). Continue on Mare Island Way to the Mare Island Causeway, turn left. Continue on the causeway to Azuar Drive, turn left. Continue on Azuar Drive 0.3 miles to Dump Road (Dump Road/A Street), turn right. Continue on Dump Rd to the San Pablo Trail parking lot, GPS: 38.10093, -122.2852
Part Two – From the San Pablo Bay Trail parking lot: Head east on Dump Rd/A St to Azuar Drive turn right. Continue on Azuar Dr to the end 670 O'Hara Ct, the Mare Island Preserve parking lot, GPS: 38.08128, -122.25640

Jim DeFede in "The Day the World Came to Town" chronicles the events in Gander, Newfoundland, when President Bush closed American airspace on 9/11/2001. The people of Gander, population 10,000 had 38 planes diverted to the town. On thirty minutes notice, they housed, fed, and clothed the passengers, almost 8000 people. Ganderites and the passengers came together and proved that the hatred shown by the hijackers was an anomaly; real love and consideration are Western traits that no one can obliterate. Castro: Tales of the Village

Saturday August 26 11:00 a.m.
Diane Savard (925) 864-7141
I am listing this event, but it is a docent lead walk by the SF City Guides. They advertise that the walks are free, but suggest a $20.00 donation for this event. Meet near the giant rainbow flag – Market and Castro at Harvey Milk Plaza. When Harvey Milk won his historic 1977 race for the Board of Supervisors, he ran the campaign out of his humble Castro District camera shop. For the past decade, a vibrant gay community had been taking root in the Castro. You'll learn about the evolution of the Castro's architecture, historic businesses and the people and places that played a role in making the Castro one of the epicenters of the gay rights movement — a tradition that continues today. Tour Length: Approximately 2 hours. I will be starting my journey from North Concord BART at 9:06 a.m. and transfer at the Montgomery BART at 9:56 a.m. to MUNI lines K< L or M to the corner of Castro and Market. After the tour we can discuss if we want to find a local restaurant for a late lunch. Call or email in advance as I can't have more than 6 people and we need to sign up ahead of time. I currently have signed up for 4 people and can change that up or down up until a week before.
