

DR. STEVEN V. TERRY
BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Steven V. Terry is the founder and pastor of Deliverance Tabernacle Church, located in Corryton, Tennessee. He has faithfully served this ministry and the community since its inception in March, 1990. He is a husband, a father, a gospel preacher, an educator, and a leader. His goal is and has always been to reconcile fallen man to our Heavenly Father, God. The messages delivered weekly are filled with love, hope, warnings from God and life ~ Jesus loves mankind.

Dr. Terry is a 1981 graduate of Kempsville High School in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Jameson Christian College and a Masters in Biblical Studies from Tabernacle Bible College. He received a Doctor of Divinity (D.D.) Degree from Jameson Christian College and a Doctorate in Education Administration (Ph.D.) from LaSalle University.

In addition to his varied pastoral duties, Dr. Steven V. Terry also serves as principal of the Tabernacle Christian Academy, since its opening in 1983. This ministry of Christian training for K -12th grade students resolves to meet the challenge of providing a well-rounded education within the boundaries of Christian principles taught in the Word of God.

In the year 2000, Dr. Terry founded and continues to serve as President of the African Awareness Campaign (AAC), an all-volunteer foreign mission which particularly targets high poverty communities and families in Africa.
