CAMPOREE COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN REPORTS

2021 CAMPOREE

Bob and Barbara Rosenthal stated that everything is going well so far and requested that everyone take all the decorations home tonight. The games report was Debbie & Bill Cassidy won at Bocce Ball, Charlie Pergrossi won Corn Hole, and Bob & Barbara Rosenthal won at Shuffleboard. Prizes were given out to them.

2022 CAMPOREE

Chairpersons Trucy and Steve Rogers informed us that the theme is OVERLOAD THE BOAT. It will also be at Southern Palms, Oct. 20–23, 2022. Ribbons on sale Saturday night for $45, which is tonight. A skit will be presented tonight at the afterparty giving suggestions as to what you may want to wear for theme night.

MEMBERSHIP

As of October 21, 2021, there are 86 members in FANSDC - 9 members did not renew.

STATE REPORT

Mary Burzo stated that she will continue soliciting the ads for the Camporee Booklet and Dolly Ide will be doing the graphics, editing, and coordinating the printing of the book. And the book also needs to be updated, so please send any corrections to Dolly, i.e., address changes and phone numbers, etc.

HISTORIAN

Gail LaRue has 45 years of scrap books. Her Smile Box software from which she had produced the last several camporee books has died. She brought 2 books from past Camporees for everyone to look at and enjoy. She is investigating another way of producing commemorative books for this and future camporees.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Chair of the Nominating Committee, Don McGregor, announced the slate of offices for this year.

President – Bob & Barbara Rosenthal
Vice President – Carolyn & Bill Dees
Secretary – Marilyn & Paul Scott
Treasurers – Debbie & Wayne Miller

The President asked for any nominations from the floor. There were none. Mary Chesnut made a motion to accept the nominees, Dolly Ide seconded the motion. It was voted on and the Board was elected.

OLD BUSINESS

We needed a Web Master. Sam Dunn raised his hand and volunteered which ended a two-year hunt to replace a corrupted web site. The President said thank you, thank you.

NEW BUSINESS

Summary of the Questionnaire Results was reported. There were 40 respondents. Square dancing was the activity that was most important to all the respondents. The activities of Getting together, Multiple Callers & Cuers, After Parties, Round Dancing, Catered Dinner, Crafts, Flea Market, and Workshops were closely grouped together in order of declining interest. The activities of least interest to the attendees were Games, Annual Meeting, and least important was Sunday Breakfast.

The results were presented to the new board to help with planning for future camporees.

Good news for 2022 and 2023 Camporees. At this camporee, enthusiasm produced two volunteers. A Vice Chair for 2023, Debbie and Wayne Miller from chapter 128 and a Chair for 2023, Bev and Jack Henry from chapter 153.

Angela reminded people about early registration for next year and a chance to get registration fee refunded. Also, that the next general meeting will be on October 22, 2022

The President also recognized several members for their many years of untiring excellent volunteer service to the organization. This is what makes our FANSDC so strong and vibrant and fun!

Mary Burzo for the continual work with the booklet, as our state representative, keeping our badges up to date, for being the keeper of our records as well as supporting us in many other unheralded areas.

Dolly Ide for salvaging this year's booklet, many past catered dinners, valued resource and helper for the chairpersons of the camporees, and also supporting us in many other unheralded areas.

Barbara and Bob for their excellent work in keeping on keeping on with the many punches and challenges for the last two years

Allen Byland and Lolly Adkison for their outstanding artwork and displays supporting the Camporee themes for the last 6 years.

Also, to the Campground manager for her personalized excellent assistance in making sure we had an exceptional camporee.

The meeting was turned over to the new President

ANNUAL MEETING ADJOURN
