Missed lessons and make ups: In order to reschedule a Farm class, you must contact Christina Ranes 951.515.6039 to reschedule. This must be before the class starts, and preferably 24 hours in advance of the class or there will be no make up class. *I understand that I must cancel and request a reschedule class 24 hours in advance of missing the class.

Clothing and Shoes: Appropriate clothing and shoes are always required and no student will be allowed to participate without them. This includes long pants, and closed toe shoes. No exceptions. Closed toe shoes are also required for all family members, parents, and visitors at the farm. No one will be allowed in the animal enclosure without long pants and closed toe shoes. No exceptions. *I understand the clothing and boot requirements.

Spectators: We are so happy to share our farm with you. We ask that visitors supervise children and stay off landscaped areas. Please no climbing trees or rocks. Do not feed horses or any animals. Do not chase or otherwise encourage horses in pens to "run". All visitors must wear closed toe shoes. No visitors inside the barn or farm yard without them. Do not pick fruit or take eggs home outside of class activities without permission. It is important for our trees and plants to continue their growing season so that they can be used in Farm School classes. Thank you.

*I agree to abide by the rules for spectators

Farm Risks: There are rattlesnakes, scorpions, biting and stinging insects, stinging nettle or other irritant plants, and animals that may bite, kick, or step on feet. This is why footwear, appropriate supervision, and vigilance is required while on the property. *I acknowledge the possible farm risks and will read and sign the release of liability to properly understand the inherent dangers of participating and spectating at Whitebrook Farm.

Parent _____ Child: _____

Time: We ask that you leave after class. Please do not stay on the farm to visit or play after class has ended. We are sorry, but it is a liability issue to have visitors stay unsupervised. *I have read and understand the class time policy.
