

I would love to SHARE my story

Seeking opportunities to speak.
I will be in Madison, Alabama from September 10 until
October 12.

In my next newsletter, I will tell you about the incredible harvest we had in Izmir, Turkey, after this musical group held an outdoor concert.

I would be happy to speak to any large or small group.

I can share my personal story about how I saw Jesus in a vision, converted out of Islam, the personal struggles that followed and continue to be a challenge, including being locked in a mental hospital, and much more.

As a pastor-in-training, I can speak on many topics:

- 1. The differences between Islam and Christianity
- 2. The amazing work going on in Turkey
- 3. Answering atheists
- 4. Reaching this generation for Christ, and more
