

During this session of Sounding The Alarm! The Mantleship of The Prophetic, we are going to discuss Eight Characteristics of the OLd Testament Prophet as well as the New Testament Prophet. Is there any difference between the two? Well according to the scriptures that we will explore, there is little to no difference, at least there should not be, but as we take a closer look, there is still a lot of work to be done in this area of the Ministry Gifts!

Check out our outline below for Thursday, May 9, 2024 @ 10:00 AM virtual class via

“FROM THE CLASSROOM” a Radio Podcast @

<https://www.spreaker.com/podcast/from-the-classroom--6087505>

Sounding The Alarm!
The Mantleship of The Prophetic

Eight Characteristics of the Old Testament Prophet

1. Seeing the world through God's perspective.
2. In sympathy with God because of the sin of His people.
3. Deeply loves the people of God.
4. Desires the best for God's people.
5. Is sensitive to sin.
6. Challenges God's people to be obedient to the Law of God.
7. Has a vision for the future. Looks for a time of restoration.
8. A person of loneliness and sorrow as they contend for true faith and obedience.

Relevance of the New Testament Prophet

1. Zeal for the church's purity
2. Deep sensitivity to evil
3. Keen understanding of false teachers
4. Dependence on God's Word
5. Concern for the success of God's kingdom