

MISS OUTTA SIGHT PAGEANT RULES

Pageant Coordinator will begin accepting packets at 5:30 PM on the day of the pageant. If your packet is turned in later than 6:00 PM, it will be considered as a "Late Entry".

Each contestant is allowed one helper in the dressing room. All others will be asked to leave.

No use or sale of any illegal substance will be tolerated. Any contestant or helper caught breaking this rule will result in immediate disqualification of that contestant.

Theft will not be tolerated. Any contestant or helper caught breaking this rule will result in immediate disqualification of that contestant.

The winner of this pageant will perform their first number as the new Reigning soon after being crowned and is not required to do any shows representing this title but is required to perform at and crown the new winner of next year's pageant. Please submit the number you will be doing upon turning in your packet just in case you are the winner.

A contestant is required to bring 2 items for auction during the competition. This is what keeps the pageant free of entry fees.

Tipping is allowed and encouraged during all judged categories of the pageant.

Judged categories are as follows:

(A): Presentation – 150 points possible

(B): Evening Wear & Q/A -- 150 points possible

(C): Talent – 200 points possible

Late entries will be accepted up until the start of the pageant. However, 50 points will be deducted from the final score of the late entrant.

Contestants may not use any fireworks, sharp tools, knives, or weapons of any kind. Also, contestants may not use any other device that may cause harm to themselves or any other member of the audience or any other contestant or contestant's helper. No total nudity will be tolerated.
