MISS – Contestant should portray themselves as a woman/female

MX – Contestant should portray themselves as they consider themselves to be

Pageant Coordinator will begin accepting packets at 6:30 PM on the night of the Pageant. Packet must be turned in to the Pageant Coordinator by 7:00 PM on the night of the pageant. If your packet is turned in later than 7:00 PM, it will be considered as a “Late Entry”.

Each contestant is allowed one helper in the dressing room. All others will be asked to leave.

No use or sale of any illegal substance will be tolerated. Any contestant or helper caught breaking this rule will result in immediate disqualification of that contestant.

Theft will not be tolerated. Any contestant or helper caught breaking this rule will result in immediate disqualification of that contestant.

All contestants are required to bring at least two (2) auction items to be auctioned off during the pageant. This is what keeps the pageant free from entrance fees.

Late entries will be accepted up until the start of the pageant. However, 50 points will be deducted from the final score of the late entrant.

Contestants may not use any fireworks, sharp tools, knives, or weapons of any kind. Also, contestants may not use any other device that may cause harm to themselves or any other member of the audience or any other contestant or contestant’s helper. No total nudity will be tolerated.

The winner of this pageant will perform their first number as the new Reigning soon after being crowned and is required to be a part of at least 10 Wall of Food events during the next year and is also required to perform at and crown the new winner of next year’s pageant. Please submit the number you will be doing upon turning in your packet just in case you are the winner.

Tipping is allowed and encouraged during all judged categories of the pageant.

Judged categories are as follows:

(A): Presentation – 150 points possible

(B): Evening Wear & Q/A -- 150 points possible

(C): Talent – 200 points possible
