

The Gulf Today

Tuesday, June 13, 2000 (Rabi Al Awwal 11, 1421)

Christoph K. Franzen

Mohamed Asser Samy

Hyatt honours staff with promotion

Christoph K. Franzen, assistant manager reservations, and Mohamed Asser Samy, night manager, were recently promoted as Front Office Manager and Assistant Front Office manager respectively by the Hyatt Regency in Dubai.

Christoph, a graduate from the Australian International Hotel School in Canberra and the Cornell University New York, worked as Front Office Manager in Naples (USA) and with Hilton International in Switzerland before joining Hyatt Regency Dubai team in July, 1999. An excited Chris commented: "I am very happy to be a member of Hyatt Regency Dubai's professional and dedicated team and this part of the world is so exciting and challenging as well."

Mohamed a graduate from the Alexandria University in Egypt, joined Hyatt Regency Dubai in 1991 as Front Office Clerk. He quickly progressed to Shift Leader followed by a promotion to Assistant Manager Lobby, and then in 1997 he was given the position of Night Manager. After nearly a decade of service with Hyatt Regency Dubai, a proud Asser said, "I am very proud of my success and I look forward to the exciting opportunities available at Hyatt Regency Dubai to further advance my career."

Christoph K. Franzen

Mohamed Asser Samy

Hyatt honours staff with promotion

Christoph K. Franzen, assistant manager reservations, and Mohamed Asser Samy, night manager, were recently promoted as Front Office Manager and Assistant Front Office manager respectively by the Hyatt Regency in Dubai.

Christoph, a graduate from the Australian International Hotel School in Canberra and the Cornell University New York, worked as Front Office Manager in Naples (USA) and with Hilton International in Switzerland before joining Hyatt Regency Dubai team in July, 1999. An excited Chris commented: "I am very happy to be a member of Hyatt Regency Dubai's professional and dedicated team and this part of the world is so exciting and challenging as well."

Mohamed a graduate from the Alexandria University in Egypt, joined Hyatt Regency Dubai in 1991 as Front Office Clerk. He quickly progressed to Shift Leader followed by a promotion to Assistant Manager Lobby, and then in 1997 he was given the position of Night Manager. After nearly a decade of service with Hyatt Regency Dubai, a proud Asser said, "I am very proud of my success and I look forward to the exciting opportunities available at Hyatt Regency Dubai to further advance my career."