

Grand Hyatt Muscat wins two more prestigious awards

AFTER only just recently receiving “Leading Hotel in Oman 2010” award by the World Travel Awards, Grand Hyatt Muscat has now been awarded with two more awards; the Rubin Business Hotel award 2010 and the “Best Foreign Cuisine in Oman”, presented to its Italian restaurant Tuscany from a German publishing house Berliner Tageszeitung.

The awards were presented in a ceremony at the hotel recently. Queen of the Universe, Julia Schmidt presented the awards to the Grand Hyatt Muscat, which was also the first time that a Queen of the Universe has visited the Sultanate. In addition to Schmidt, the Queen of the World and the Queen of Europe were also present at the awards ceremony in the hotel.

Editor in Chief of the publication Reiko Opitz said, “We are very excited to be awarding Grand Hyatt Muscat with both of these awards. After scouting the globe for contenders, we recognise the hotel for being set apart from the rest. Not only for the first class facilities the hotel offers to its business guests, but also for the impressive and beautiful surroundings which makes the hotel unique and embraces an Omani sense of style and culture”.

There were 175 hotels from around the globe, which competed for the Rubin Business Hotel award 2010. Grand Hyatt Muscat was also awarded in 2009 with “Best Business Hotel in Muscat” by Business Traveler Middle East. The award for “Best Foreign Cuisine in Oman” for Tuscany restaurant comes after the restaurant was awarded with “Best Italian Restaurant” by an Omani magazine in 2009 and in previous years also.
