FAYETTE COMPREHENSIVE PLAN AVAILABLE FOR FINAL REVIEW

Uniontown, PA – Fayette County residents are invited to review the county's proposed comprehensive plan this month.

Mackin Engineering Community Planning Services Manager Brandi Rosselli said the plan's final draft is now in its last review period.

It can be viewed in print at the Fayette County Planning Office, located in the courthouse; at the Connellsville and Uniontown libraries, during normal business hours; or on the county website, www.FayetteCountyPA.org.

All comments must be submitted to Rosselli in writing by August 5, either via email at BRosselli@mackinengineering.com; or mailed to her attention at: Mackin Engineering Company, 103 Technology Drive, Suite 200, Pittsburgh, PA 15275.

Fayette County is required to update its comprehensive plan every 10 years, with each update process requiring approximately one year to complete.

Throughout 2018, Mackin officials and Fayette County Commissioners hosted a series of informal planning meetings, gathering public input on the county's future. That input was then used to help outline Fayette's current and long-term priorities and goals.

A public hearing on the plan's final draft will be held prior to commissioners' approval at an upcoming county meeting.

For more information, contact Rosselli at 412-200-5884.
