Clear Brook Farm is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer | Details pg. 5

About Us

Clear Brook Farm was established in 1995. 2024 is our 30th season growing bedding plants, certified organic vegetables & fruits. At the height of the season, we employ over twenty-five full and part time workers. Our farm has forty-five acres of land in cultivation, twenty-five of which are in veggies & small fruit production in rotation with cover crops & straw. Our farm stand is the main sales outlet for our locally grown produce & plants.

Positions

* Currently Hiring

STAND CREW

Clear Brook Farm's reputation is for having a friendly and helpful sales staff. This position entails both selling produce and plants, watering plants, stocking produce, and being able to assist customers in a friendly and courteous manner. If you are a "people person" - especially if you have gardening knowledge - we would love to talk to you.

FIELD CREW **

The Clear Brook Farm field crew helps with the growing, planting, weeding, and picking of produce on the farm. This position is physically demanding; we expect our Field Hands to work efficiently and carefully. They also have a lot of fun.

GREENHOUSE CREW **

Our greenhouse season is brief and busy. These positions generally start in early April and go through May. These jobs mostly include transplanting, some seeding, and watering of the greenhouses. As the greenhouse work slows, most greenhouse workers move into either working the field or farm stand.
