THE BRAIDED JANES

BIOGRAPHY

The Braided Janes is a Post-punk, Latin rock trio from Chicago, IL. founded by singer Museica (Jessica Rodriguez), wife Juny Alvarez and brother in law Andrew Doyle. Bilingual and multicultural, their music is a celebration of their cultural heritage and a call to action for equal rights. Their first album "Despierta" achieved attention from NPR who name "Fuego" one the "Best Latin Alternative Songs of 2019". They're currently on their first ever U.S Tour Corazón Migrante.

NEW ALBUM

In March 2022 the band traveled to Minca Colombia to record their 2nd album, "Renacer" with Grammy award winning co-producer Christian Castagno (Iggy Pop, Bomba Estéreo, Arcade Fire) of Sonido Selva. The rhythmic and up beat, "tropi-alt rock" album features performances by Andrés Álvarez (Aterciopelados) on Keyboards and Christian Castagno on Electric Guitar and percusion and was mastered by Francisco Holzmann of Holz Masters (Mon Laferte).

Renacer was released September 22nd, 2023 on all streaming platforms. The album release show was held September 23rd 2023 at the National Museum of Mexican Art in Pilsen, Chicago featuring a diverse lineup of Latine, women, LGBTQ artists including rapper Niña Dioz, fashion designer Julieta Zavala, Mariachi Sirenas & DJ Angelfuk.

FEATURED

UPCOMING TOUR DATES

- 11/09 Los Angeles, CA - Consulado General de México
- 12/06 Chicago, IL - with Aterciopelados, Bottom Lounge
- 12/07 CDMX, MX - Complejo Cultural Los Pinos
- 02/03 Chicago IL - with Making Movies Location TBA

We recorded in a natural paradise nestled in the jungle, barefoot and disconnected from the outside world. We were able to enjoy a simpler, more grounded way of life and found peace in the stillness that allowed us to travel inward and flourish in the making of 'Renacer'"
