

Week 11 proved to be a tough week w/ the average correct picks being 8.28 out of 15 for all. It is getting tight! There are 13 prognosticators within 6 games of the lead. GG Cutter snatched the lead back from Wayne Hogon this week as Wayne struggled more than usual and GG leads by 1 game. Two defending champions are lurking close behind though with CJ Troyer & Carolyn Klaege being only 2 games back along with Talmadge Tobias and Lyle Wescott. All four of them are Tied for 3rd. With only 2 weeks remaining in the regular season and a full bowl slate coming up, it is still anyone's contest to win. The Top 20 after Week 11 are:
