Organic/Low Pesticide TEA to Europe

As organic tea is in demand these days in the European market, we developed a line of teas (Besides Gunpowder and Chunmee teas) which are certified as grown and processed without artificial fertilizers and pesticides.

We certify that they are a pleasure to drink!

Artificial Blooming tea

Blooming Teas are hand sewn dry tea leaves, flowers and possibly herbs into the shape of a tiny ball. When placed into a pot of boiling water a bouquet of tea leaves and flower petals envelopes into a floral bouquet with vibrant aromas and visual elegance.

The golden liquor yields a full-bodied flavor intensified by the large floral bouquet. Blooming Teas are very good for the health of men and women. The all natural ingredients are healthy and delicious. Blooming teas brews for approximately 5 minutes. One blooming teaball can be used twice with approximately the same amount of water each time.

Watch your tea while it is blooming like flower!

Blossoming tea is a treasure to enjoy. The visually stunning leaf action is a wonder to behold. But, better than that, the tea leaves are extremely healthy. Tea health benefits are well known and proven throughout the centuries. We are fortunate to bring you the finest quality tea blooms made fresh from China. Try our flowering tea with someone you care about. Tea is best enjoyed with friends and the tea blooms are even more enjoyable with someone else. The tea party is much more fun with more than one.

Jasmine tea

Derived from Chinese green tea, jasmine tea is said to have a wide range of health benefits. The antioxidant effects in preventing certain cancer types and reduction of stress levels are just a couple of them. Here's a look at the remaining benefits of this refreshing drink.

The history of jasmine tea goes back to the third century AD, when the jasmine plant was brought to China from Persia. However, it was only during the Song Dynasty (960-1279 AD) that drinking of this tea became popular. A very famous Chinese proverb says, "Drinking a daily cup of tea will surely starve the apothecary." The Chinese people considered this beverage to be more than just tea; they saw it as a medicine that was used to cure various diseases and health problems.
